for LEGAL SEPARATION WITH MINOR CHILDREN

To get a Consent Decree when both parties agree

Forms and Instructions

Summary Consent Decree Process for legal separation with minor children

Checklist

You may use the forms in this packet if . . .

- ✓ Both spouses want to file a petition for legal separation, AND,
- ✓ Both spouses agree to ALL the terms of the legal separation and will work together to complete, sign and file the necessary papers, AND,
- ✓ You do not have a “covenant” marriage, (these papers will not work for a covenant marriage)* AND,
- ✓ You or your spouse either live in Arizona or are stationed in Arizona as a member of the armed services at the time of filing.
- ✓ You have minor child(ren) together AND they have resided (lived) in Arizona at least 6 months before you file the forms, or you talked to a lawyer who advised you that you could pursue the case in Arizona AND,
- ✓ You believe that the marriage is irretrievably broken (you and your spouse cannot make this marriage work), or one or both parties desire to live separate and apart AND,
- ✓ Either spouse has tried to resolve your marital problems through Conciliation Services, or there is no point in trying to resolve your marital problems.

*What is a “Covenant Marriage?” As of August 21, 1998, the Arizona Legislature created a type of marriage called “covenant” marriage. To have a covenant marriage, both spouses would have had to:

1. sign papers asking to have a covenant marriage; AND
2. attend pre-marital counseling; AND
3. the marriage license says it’s a “Covenant Marriage.”

If you were married before August 21, 1998 and have not signed papers to convert your marriage to a covenant marriage, you do not have a covenant marriage. If you still have questions about whether you have a covenant marriage, see a lawyer for help.

READ ME: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results. A list of lawyers you may hire to advise you on handling your own case or to perform specific tasks can be found on the Law Library Resource Center website.

Instructions: How to fill out papers for the summary consent decree process

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence can be part of any marriage. Domestic violence includes physical violence such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking or threats of physical violence directed against you and/or your children and/or verbal abuse used to control you and/or your children.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, and you do not want your address to be known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a “Request for Protected Address” and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your divorce papers. Just write “protected” in the space on the form where you are asked for this information. You must tell the Clerk of Superior Court your address and phone number as soon as possible so the court can get in touch with you. The court will keep your address protected.

General information about filling out forms:

- Type or print all forms in black ink.
- You must fill out the top left of the first page on every form. This tells the Court who is filing the document. This will be the Petitioner/Party A’s information, except when noted below.
- You will not have a Case Number, unless you have a court order for Child Support. If so, use that Case Number. Otherwise, leave the space blank for the Clerk of Superior Court to assign a new Case Number.
- Whomever is the “Petitioner/Party A” will remain the “Petitioner/Party A” throughout the whole case. This will never change.
- Whomever is the “Respondent/Party B” will remain the “Respondent/Party B” throughout the whole case. This will never change.

Complete the following forms:

- ✓ Family Department Sensitive Data Cover Sheet

Both parties need to complete their own Cover Sheet.

- If you have minor children, use the form “with children.” If you do not have minor children, use the form “without children.”
- The top left information is for the party filing the form.
- No copies are needed; neither party will provide a copy to the other party. This form is information just for the Court.

- ✓ Preliminary Injunction

- This document tells the parties things they cannot do until the Court enters the decree.
- A copy must go to the responding party.

- ✓ Notice of Your Rights About Health Insurance Coverage
  - This is an important document that explains what to do about health care coverage for yourself and any minor child(ren). Read it carefully.
  - A copy must go to the responding party.
- ✓ Notice Regarding Creditors
  - This is an important document that tells both spouses that each is responsible for community debts to creditors even though the court order or decree says that only one of you are responsible. Read this notice to find out how to obtain information from your creditors about account balances.
  - A copy must go to the responding party.
- ✓ Notice of Intent to File Consent Decree for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage
  - Both parties sign and date the form.
- ✓ Petition and Response for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage
  - Numbers correspond to numbered paragraphs or sections on the form.
    1. Complete Party A's name, address, date of birth, job title and years/month lived in Arizona.
    2. Complete Party B's name, address, date of birth, job title and years/month lived in Arizona.
    3. Complete information about the marriage, including:
      - Date of marriage. If you do not know this information, and you were married in Yuma County, you may get a copy of your marriage license from the Clerk of Superior Court (250 W. Second St., Yuma.) If you were married in another county in Arizona, go to the Clerk of Superior Court at the county seat where you were married.
      - City and State of marriage. If married outside the United States, indicate the Country where married.
      - Read the statements that follow the checkboxes. Check the box for each statement that is TRUE. If any statement is NOT true or if you fail to check the box to indicate the statement is true, your case may not proceed.
        - Check the first box to indicate that you do not have a “covenant” marriage. Read the Checklist in this packet for more information on covenant marriages.
        - Check the second box to indicate your marriage is irretrievably broken. “Irretrievably broken” means that your marriage is broken beyond repair and there is no chance of getting back together with your spouse.
        - Check the third box to indicate you and your spouse have attended a free conference with trained staff through the Court – or that it would not help.

- If the fourth box (regarding legal decision-making) is not checked, the Court will not be able to enter orders regarding legal decision-making of the children. Generally, the children must have lived in Arizona for the past six (6) months, or since birth if younger than 6 months.
4. 90-day requirement. At least one of the parties must have lived in Arizona for at least 90 days before filing the papers. Or, at least one party must have been stationed in Arizona while a member of the Armed Forces for at least 90 days before filing the papers. Before you file for Divorce, this statement MUST be true. If it is not true, you cannot file for divorce in Arizona until it becomes true.
  5. If you have minor children, list their name, date of birth, and address.
  6. Statement and Waivers. These statements are necessary to proceed with the summary consent decree process.
    - a. This waiver means the Respondent will not require the Petitioner to formally serve them under Arizona law, and both parties agree that they have settled all issues in their divorce.
    - b. This waiver means both parties understand they have a right to request free conciliation services to try to resolve issues to remain married. However, they choose not to use those services.
    - c. This waiver means both parties understand the Petitioner could proceed by default if a Petition was filed instead. Default is when the Petitioner makes requests of the Court and the Respondent chooses not to disagree and not file a response; the Petitioner can then apply to enter “default” and submit a Default Decree to make orders of the requests in the Petition. Some parties proceed by default to save money on the filing fee of the Response. Proceeding with the summary consent decree process means both parties will be required to pay a filing fee and will submit a Consent Decree for the Judge to sign into orders.
    - d. This statement means that when Respondent/Party B signs the “Petition and Response,” it has the same effect as if the Respondent had been served a Summons. This means the Respondent will not need to be “served” with the divorce.
    - e. This means the parties understand if they wish to withdraw their agreement, the party who no longer agrees must file a motion with the Court no later than 60 days after filing of the “Petition and Response.” If you change your mind, see the instructions and procedures and form for a “Motion to Withdraw Notice of Intent.”
    - f. This means the parties are filing the joint “Petition and Response” instead of filing separate “Petition” and “Response” forms.
  7. Written Agreement. This is stating that the parties are attaching a copy of their agreement, i.e., Consent Decree, to the “Petition and Response.” The agreement tells the Court information about the case and what the parties are asking the Court to sign as an order.
- Joint Requests to the Court.
    - A. Under this section, the parties are stating they wish the Court to grant their request for a divorce.

B. This means the parties are asking the Court to enter orders as detailed in the Consent Decree.

- Oath or affirmation and verification. Both parties are required to sign in front of a Clerk of Superior Court or a notary public. By doing so, you are telling the Court that everything contained in the “Petition and Response” is true, under penalty of perjury.
- ✓ Consent Decree
  - See the separate instructions about how to fill out the Consent Decree.

Complete the following forms when you have minor children:

- ✓ Affidavit Regarding Minor Children
  - You must complete this document. Fill in the information completely and to the best of your knowledge.
- ✓ Order and Notice to Attend the Parent Information Program Class
  - Both parents must attend and complete a class in the Parent Information Program. The purpose of the Parent Information Program is to give parents information about the impacts that divorce, the changes in the family unit, and court involvement may have on minor children involved in a divorce, paternity, or legal decision-making case. This Notice applies to all parents who file an action for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, or any proceeding in which a party has requested that the court determine legal decision-making, parenting time or support, and to all other domestic relations cases if ordered by the court. Make sure you read this order.
- ✓ Parenting Plan
  - Fill out the Parenting Plan to let the Court know details about what you want for legal decision-making authority and parenting time. It is important to be specific when filling out the Parenting Plan. You may refer to the “Planning for Parenting Time: Arizona’s Guide for Parents Living Apart” to help make your parenting plan. The Guide is available for purchase at all Law Library Resource Center locations or may be viewed online and downloaded for free from the State Courts’ webpage.
- ✓ Child Support Worksheet
  - Use the free online Child Support Calculator at the website listed below to complete a Child Support Worksheet ezCourtForms <http://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/ezcourtforms2/>
  - To complete the child support worksheet, you will need to know:
    - Your monthly gross income and that of the other parent.
    - The monthly cost of medical insurance for the minor children who are the subject of this action.

- Monthly childcare amounts paid to others.
  - The number of days the minor child(ren) spend with the non-primary residential (custodial) parent.
  - Monthly obligations of yourself and the other parent for child support or court-ordered spousal maintenance/support.
- ✓ Child Support Order
- You must complete this document. When you create a Child Support Worksheet using the ezCourtForms program, it will also generate a Child Support Order. Both parties must sign the form. Leave the date and signature for the judge blank.
- ✓ Current Employer Information
- You must complete this document. When you create a Child Support Worksheet using the ezCourtForms program, it will also generate this form.

PARENTING PLAN INFORMATION

A.R.S. § 25-401 defines legal decision-making and parenting time as follows:

1. "Legal Decision-Making" means the legal right and responsibility to make all nonemergency legal decisions for a child including those regarding education, health care, religious training and personal care decisions.
2. "Joint Legal Decision-Making" means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights nor responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the Court or the parents in the final judgment or order.

PARENTS PLEASE NOTE: Per A.R.S § 25-403.09, an award of joint legal decision-making or a substantially equal parenting time plan does not diminish the responsibility of either parent to provide for the support of the child. Also note that joint legal decision-making does not necessarily mean equal parenting time. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(E)

3. "Sole Legal Decision-Making" means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child.
4. "Parenting Time" means the schedule of time during which each parent has access to a child at specified times. Each parent during their scheduled parenting time is responsible for providing the child with food, clothing and shelter and may make routine decisions concerning the child's care.

You may view the "Parenting Time Guidelines" online at the Arizona Supreme Court's website.

Drafting a Parenting Plan:

The written parenting plan pays attention to how the parents will make decisions pertaining to the child(ren)'s education, health care, religious training, and personal care; it is a blend of specific information with generalized plans of action. It should reflect what the parents are currently doing or what they actually plan to do. It should reflect a commitment to the minor child(ren)'s needs as predominant.

If the parents cannot agree on a plan for legal decision-making or parenting time, each parent must submit a proposed parenting plan. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(A)

In order for the Court to approve a parenting plan, A.R.S. § 25-403.02 requires the Court to make the following findings:

- a. The best interests of the minor child(ren) are served;
- b. The plan designates legal decision-making as joint or sole;
- c. The plan sets forth each parent's rights and responsibilities for the personal care of the minor child(ren) and for decisions in areas such as education, health care, and religious training;
- d. The plan provides a practical schedule of parenting time for the child, including holidays and school vacations;

- e. The plan includes a procedure for exchanges of the child, including location and responsibility for transportation;
- f. The plan includes a procedure by which proposed changes, disputes and alleged breaches may be mediated or resolved, which may include the use of Conciliation Services or private counseling;
- g. The plan includes a procedure for periodic review (e.g., parents agree to review the terms of the agreement every 12 months.);
- h. The plan includes a procedure for communicating with each other about the child, including methods and frequency;
- i. The plan includes a statement that each party has read, understands, and will abide by the notification requirements of A.R.S. § 25-403.05(B). (A parent must immediately notify the other parent if the parent knows that a convicted/registered sex offender or a person who has been convicted of a dangerous crime against children may have access to the child. Notice must be provided (i) by first class mail, return receipt requested, (ii) by electronic means to an e-mail address the recipient provided to the parent for notification purposes, or (iii) by other communication accepted by the Court.)

The following questions may be used as a starting place when drafting a parenting plan:

1. The geographical location of the parents: Where do parents live relative to one another? What are their addresses? Permanent or temporary?
2. Arrangements regarding the residential requirements of the minor child(ren): How much time will the minor child(ren) spend with each parent? Be as specific as possible, including days and times.
3. Arrangements for holidays and vacations: What are your plans for summer vacation and school breaks? List specific details including dates and times.
4. Arrangements for education: How will decisions be made for educational matters? For example, if preschool age, what school will the minor child(ren) attend? If private school, who pays what?
5. Additional transportation arrangements: Will any additional transportation arrangements be needed? If so, what will be the responsibilities of each parent?
6. Determinations regarding minor child(ren)'s health care: For example, how will medical decisions be made? Who will provide insurance? How are non-insured expenses paid? Who decides on seeking non-emergency treatment? Is there a dental plan? If not, who will pay what?
7. Arrangements regarding extraordinary expenses: For example, what financial arrangements are made for the minor child(ren) (such as each sharing extraordinary expenditures and the parent with whom the minor child(ren) resides bearing the ordinary ones during the minor child(ren)'s residency)? A fixed amount per month?
8. Arrangements for minor child(ren)'s religious training, if any: For example, how will decisions be made for religious training? What, if any, are the plans for religious training?
9. Any other factors: What other arrangements (such as music lessons, sports/activity fees, camp or Scouts) are needed?

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may request a deferral (payment plan) when you file your papers with the Clerk. Deferral Applications are available at no charge from the Law Library Resource Center and Clerk's office.

Hand the sets 1, 2 and 3 of your court papers to the Clerk of Superior Court along with the filing fee. The Clerk will file in the originals and give you back conformed copies. Each party should take one set.

STEP 7. Deliver Set 4 and 5 (if applicable) to the Clerk of Superior Court Information Desk. Include two (2) pre-stamped large envelopes with sufficient postage, one addressed to each party.

These will be used to mail the final documents to each party. *If the Division of Child Support Services signed your forms, include another pre-stamped and addressed envelope for the Office of the Attorney General.

STEP 8. There is a mandatory waiting period of 60 days from the date in which the documents are filed before a judge may enter the final decree. This is known as the “waiting period.”

You will need to complete the Parent Information Program during the waiting period. If you require more information about the program and how to enroll, see the document titled “Order and Notice for the Parent Information Program.”

STEP 9. Wait for your judge to review the paperwork. By law, the Consent Decree will be held until the end of the waiting period of at least 60 days from the date of filing has passed.

If the parties reconcile, wish to change their consent decree or other final orders, or no longer agree to terms of settlement, they must complete and file a motion or stipulation before the 60-day waiting period is up.

What happens next? It is within the Judge’s/Commissioner’s discretion whether to accept or reject the Decree, or to schedule a court hearing.

1. If your consent decree is accepted, the Judge/Commissioner will sign the original Decree and have it filed with the Clerk of Superior Court. The Court will send a copy of the signed Decree to each party using the envelopes you provided. This is your notification that your divorce or legal separation is now final. You are not divorced or legally separated until the Judge/Commissioner signs the Decree.
2. If your consent decree is rejected, the Court will send you a “Correction Notice” informing you of the mistakes with the documents. Follow the instructions on the “Correction Notice.” If the mistakes cannot be corrected, see a lawyer for help.
3. If the Judge/Commissioner schedules a hearing, the Court will send notice of a scheduled date, time, and location for a hearing which both parties must attend to answer any questions the Judge/Commissioner may have.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS ABOUT HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE WHEN A PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE) IS FILED
(A.R.S. §20-1377 and §20-1408)

Petitioner/Party A: _____

Case #: _____

Respondent/Party B: _____

Warning: This is an important legal notice. Your rights to health insurance coverage could be affected after your divorce is final. Read this notice carefully. If you do not understand this notice, you should call an attorney for advice about your legal rights and obligations.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION IF YOU ARE ON YOUR SPOUSE'S INSURANCE PLAN: When a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (papers for a divorce decree) is filed, you and/or your children may continue to be covered under your spouse's health insurance policy. Arizona law allows the dependent spouse and/or children to continue to be covered, but you must take some steps to protect your rights.

WHAT INSURANCE COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOU, AND HOW TO GET IT: If you are covered by your spouse's health insurance, and you want to continue to be covered after the divorce is final, you must contact the insurance company as soon as possible, and you must start to pay the monthly insurance premium within 31 days of the date the insurance would otherwise stop.

If you decide you want to be covered, the insurer can choose whether to continue coverage under the current policy, or to change the policy to your name. If the policy is changed to your name, it is called a "converted"; policy. If the policy is converted by the insurer, the insurer must provide you the same or the most similar level of coverage available, unless you ask for a lower level of coverage.

WHAT COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOUR CHILDREN: If you choose to continue coverage as a dependent spouse, you can also choose to continue coverage for your dependent children if you are responsible for their care or support.

PREEXISTING CONDITIONS OR EXCLUSIONS FROM INSURANCE COVERAGE: Whether the insurance is continued or converted, the insurance must be provided to you without proof of insurability and without exclusions for coverage other than what was previously excluded before the insurance was continued or converted.

LIMITS ON RIGHTS TO INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN: You may not be entitled to continued or converted coverage if you are eligible for Medicare or for coverage by other similar types of insurance which together with the continued coverage would make you over-insured. However, dependent children of a person who is eligible for Medicare may be covered by a continuance or a conversion. If you have questions about coverage, check with the insurer and/or the spouse's employer.

OTHER OPTIONS FOR COVERAGE: Divorce is considered to be a life changing event that, under the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"), may qualify you and/or your dependents with the right to continue health coverage under the spouse's group plan, if the employer has 20 or more employees. To find out more about your COBRA rights, you can visit the United States Department of Labor ("USDOL") website at <https://www.dol.gov/> and search for COBRA, or you can call the USDOL at 1-866-487-2365. Divorce is also a life-changing event under the federal Affordable Care Act, which qualifies you and/or your dependents for a special enrollment period to obtain an individual health insurance policy regardless of any health conditions. Additional information is available at <https://www.healthcare.gov/> or by calling 1-800-318-2596.

Warning to the spouse filing the petition for dissolution (Divorce): This Notice must be served on your spouse together with the Petition for Dissolution, the Summons, and the Preliminary Injunction.

Name of Respondent/Party B

Arizona law requires all actions for Divorce, Annulment, or Legal Separation to include this Notice and for the person filing for Divorce, Annulment, or Legal Separation to serve this Notice on the other party. (ARS § 25-318(H)).

You and your spouse are responsible for community debts. In your property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution, annulment, or legal separation, the court may assign responsibility for certain community debts to one spouse or the other. Please be aware that a court order that does this is binding on the spouses only and does not necessarily relieve either of you from your responsibility for these community debts. These debts are matters of contract between both of you and your creditors (such as banks, credit unions, credit card issuers, finance companies, utility companies, medical providers and retailers). Since your creditors are not parties to this court case, they are not bound by court orders or any agreements you and your spouse reach in this case. On request, the court may impose a lien against the separate property of a spouse to secure payment of debts that the court orders that spouse to pay.

Contact creditors: You may want to contact your creditors to discuss your debts as well as the possible effects of your court case on your debts. To assist you in identifying your creditors, you may obtain a copy of your spouse's credit report by making a written request to the court for an order requiring a credit reporting agency to release the report to you. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of a request from a spouse who is party to a divorce or legal separation, which includes the court and cause number of the action, creditors are required, by law, to
