How to fill out papers for legal decision-making authority (legal custody), parenting time and/or child support

When to use this packet

Use this packet if you want to get a court order for legal decision-making authority (legal custody), parenting time and/or child support. You cannot use this packet to establish paternity. Use this form only if you are the natural or adoptive parent of the child(ren), and

- You already have a court order establishing paternity, OR
- You have a court order for child support, OR
- You have established paternity by filing an affidavit of paternity through the Hospital Paternity Program (A.R.S. § 25-812, § 36-334) or other method permitted by law after July of 1996.

If you want a court order for legal decision-making authority (legal custody) and parenting time, the court will also want to review the current child support order. If there is no order or if the order needs to be changed, the court will sign a child support in your case.

If you have a court order for paternity or child support from another state

If you have a court order involving the child(ren) from this case from a different state, you should:

- Get a certified copy of the paternity or child support order from the other state, AND
- Get the Register a Foreign Order paperwork from the Law Library Resource Center website or one of the locations, AND
- Follow the instructions to file a Foreign Family Court Order from another state in this Court.

If you have a court order for paternity or child support from another county in Arizona

If you have a court order involving the child(ren) from this case from a different county in Arizona you should:

- Get a certified copy of the paternity or child support order from the other county, AND
- Give the certified copy to the Clerk of Superior Court when you file your court papers.

Important notice about when you can bring a legal decision-making (legal custody) case in the Superior Court in Arizona. Generally, you should have resided (lived) in Arizona with the child(ren) for at least 6 months, OR Arizona must be the child(ren)'s primary place of residence before you file, OR if the child is less than 6 months old, the child must have resided (lived) in Arizona since his/her birth. If you have questions regarding this requirement, see a lawyer before filing.

Important notice about when you can sue another person in Arizona for paternity or child support. You can sue the other Party in Arizona to establish, enforce, or change a support order, or establish paternity, if ONE of the following statements is true about the other Party:

- The other Party is a resident of Arizona; OR
- You serve the other Party with the court papers in Arizona. (See the Law Library Resource Center packet on service if you have any questions.); OR
- The other Party agrees to have the case heard here and files written papers in the court case; OR
- The other Party lived with the child in this state; OR
- The other Party lived in this state and provided pre-birth expenses or support for the child; OR
- The child lives in this state because of the acts or directions of the other Party; OR
- The person had sexual intercourse in this state and the child may have been conceived in this state; OR
- The other Party signed an affidavit acknowledging paternity; OR
- The other Party did any other acts that substantially connect the person with this state (see a lawyer to help you decide).

Domestic Violence

Domestic violence can be part of any relationship. Domestic violence includes physical violence such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking, directed against you and/or your children and/or it can also include regular verbal abuse and/or threats of physical violence made against you and/or your children, as a method to control you.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a Request for Protected Address and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. If the Court grants your Request, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. If possible, get a P.O. Box or use another valid address on these papers. If you have no other address or phone number where you can be reached, write "protected" on the forms where asked for this information. You must, as soon as possible, tell the Clerk of Superior Court an address and phone number where you can be reached.

Case Number

Use the Case Number on all your court papers. This is the number you were given in the paternity or child support case you had in Yuma County. Or, if your paternity or child support case was from another county or another state, use the number the Clerk of Superior Court gave you when you filed the certified copy of your other court case in Yuma County (see instructions above).

(Type or print in black ink)

Family Department/Sensitive Data Cover Sheet

- Write in the information requested about petitioner, respondent, and any children under the age of 18.
- Do not include mailing address on this form if requesting address protection.
- Case Type: Mark only one box that matches the legal procedure for which you are filing the documents in this packet:
- Interpreter: Check “yes” or “no” to indicate whether an interpreter is needed. If “yes,” write in what language(s).

No additional copies needed. Do not serve this document on the other party.

Summons and Preliminary Injunction:

Fill in the following information where requested: Your name; address (if not protected); city, state and zip code; telephone number; ATLAS number (if you have one); name of Petitioner; and name of Respondent.

If you are represented by an attorney, write in the attorney’s bar number. Tell the court whether you represent yourself or are represented by an attorney. Do not fill out the rest of the form except on Page 2 of the Preliminary Injunction; fill out the description of other party. The Clerk of Superior Court will complete it later.

Petition

- A. Make sure your form states Petition to Establish Legal Decision-making (Custody), Parenting Time and Child Support, or Petition for Legal Decision-making (Custody) and Parenting Time in the upper right-hand part of the first page. Decide what you want a court order for. Here are your choices:
1. Legal decision-making (custody), parenting time, and child support: Check this box if you have a court order for paternity but not for legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and child support, OR if you have a court order for child support but need to change it because of what you are asking the court to do with legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time.
 2. Legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time: Check this box if you have a court order for child support and do not think your requested changes to legal decision-making (legal custody) and/or parenting time will change the child support order.
 3. Warning: The Judge may change the child support order even if you do not ask for this.

- B. In the top left corner of the first page, fill out the following: your name; address (if not protected); city, state and zip code; telephone number; and your ATLAS number, if you are receiving or have received AFDC from the Arizona Department of Economic Security.
- C. Fill in the space that says “Name of Petitioner” and “Name of Respondent.” Complete the caption the same way it was in the paternity or child support case in Yuma County. If your paternity or child support order was from another county or another state, and this is the first time you are filing a court case in Yuma County, complete the caption the same way it was in the paternity or child support case from the other county or state.

Warning: If you have an existing case in Yuma County against the same party, do not get a new DR/FC/FN case number when filing your case! Use your existing DR/FC/FN case number. If you do not know your existing case number, ask the Clerk for your existing number before you file your complaint / petition.

D. General information:

1. Fill in your name, address (if not protected) and date of birth. This is basic information about YOU and your relationship to the child(ren) for whom you want the custody and/or parenting time order.
2. Fill in the name of the other party, his or her address and date of birth. This is basic information about the other party.
3. Venue: This tells the court that one parent or the child(ren) lives in Yuma County, so the court can decide your case.
4. Decide why you can pursue a court case against the other Party in Arizona. Check the boxes that apply.

DI. Statements about paternity and child support: Tell the court what your current situation is:

- 5.A. How was paternity established in your case? Check the box that describes how paternity was established. If none of these apply, STOP! Do not proceed with these forms unless advised to do so by an attorney. Paternity must already be established to use these forms.
- 5.B. What is your current situation as to child support? Check the box that describes your case.

If there is an order for child support provide the date of the order and the name of the court where it was filed. Then check one of the following boxes. Only if there has been a final order made by the court.

Order does not need to be changed: Check here if you think that the child support order you have does not need to be changed because of the legal decision-making and parenting time order you want. Warning: The judge can decide whether to change the child support order even if you do not want this.

Order needs to be changed: Check here if the child support order you have needs to be changed.

There is a pending petition or modification: Check here if you know that there is currently an active case involving you, the other party and the same children that is before the court already. This includes petitions that have gone through DES.

No child support order: If you have a paternity order only, without a child support order, the judge will make an order on the issues of legal decision-making, parenting time, and child support.

Voluntary or direct support payments: Check this box and designate the paying party if there have been direct payments made to the receiving party without a court order to do so. These payments need to be accounted for if a party asks for past support.

Past support: Check box to designate the party who owes past support. Choose the starting date of when the calculation of past support should begin. The first option elects that child support should be claimed at the starting point of when this petition was filed. The second option chooses the starting point to begin from the date the parties started living apart, if that date falls within three years of the petition being filed.

- F. Other information about the children: If you are aware of court cases about the children, you need to tell the court. Attach a copy of any order about legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, or child support to the petition, unless the order is from the Superior Court in Yuma County.
6. Fill out where the children in this case have been living for the past 5 years. If any children are under age 5, simply put the information about where they have been living since birth. Write each child's name; the address where the child lived; the dates the child lived at each address; whom the child lived with; and, the relationship of that person to the child. While you may not remember exact dates and address, fill this information out as completely as possible.
 7. You must tell the court if you participated as a party or witness in any court case involving issues other than legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time of the child(ren). If your answer is "no," check the first box and go on. If there is another case, check the second box and give as much information as possible. This information could affect you or your child(ren)'s rights.

8. The court must know if there have been other cases involving legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time or child support of the child(ren) of this case, even if you were not a party. If there are no other legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time cases, or you do not know of any, check the first box and go on. If you have been involved in any way with this type of court case, check the second box and give the requested information. Tell the court what happened and what is going on in the other case(s).
9. If you do not know of another person other than the other party who has physical custody of the child(ren) or is claiming legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time rights to any of the children, check the first box and go on. If you know of such a person, put the child's name and the person who believes they have legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time claim. You must also include the person as a respondent in this court case.

G. Other statements to the court:

10. Other expenses: This asks for a fair division of all expenses about the children.
11. Domestic violence: This tells the court if there was domestic violence in the relationship and relates to a request for joint legal decision-making (legal custody). If you are not sure what this means, see the paragraph on Domestic Violence on the first page of these instructions. Check the box that best describes your situation. If there has been no domestic violence, go on.
12. The Parent Information Program: This tells the court if you have already completed the Parent Information Program.
13. Drug/alcohol convictions with in the last twelve months: Inform the court of any instances of drug or DUI offenses that have occurred from either parent in the last twelve (12) months. Check the appropriate box to choose whether either parent has or has not been convicted. Provide the details of which party was convicted and how the proposed legal decision-making and parenting time arrangement protects the children considering this history of behavior.

H. Requests to the court for legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and/or child support. This section of the Complaint/Petition formally requests that the court make Orders relating to issues such as custody, parenting time and support.

Primary Residential Parent, Parenting Time and Authority for Legal Decision-making (Legal Custody).

1. Primary residence: Check which party's home will be the primary residence for the minor child(ren).

2. Parenting time: Check only one box. You can ask that the non-primary residential parent (the parent having physical custody of the child(ren) less than 50% of the time) have one of the following types of parenting time:
 - A. Reasonable Parenting time. This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the child(ren). The court offers suggested amounts of parenting time, but the amount can vary by agreement of both parents. If you and the other party agree, complete the Parenting Plan before you go to the judge for your final order.
 - B. Supervised or No Parenting time. You may request supervised or no parenting time if a party cannot adequately care for the child(ren) or cannot do so without another person present. You may request this if the party to be supervised abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for the child(ren) without another person present. Remember, supervised or no parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the child. You must tell the court in the space provided why you say the parenting time should be supervised or no parenting time allowed.
 1. Supervised Parenting time: Describe how you think supervised parenting time should be handled.
 2. No Parenting time. You should check this option only if the parent has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the child(ren)'s physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal Court Order stating there is to be no contact between the child(ren) and the parent. This is used only as a last resort to protect the child(ren).
3. Authority for Legal Decision-making (Legal Custody):
 - A. Sole legal decision-making (sole legal custody): If you want sole authority for legal decision-making, check the boxes that apply.
 - B. Joint legal decision-making (joint legal custody): If you are asking for joint legal decision-making (legal custody), you must file a Joint Legal Decision-making Agreement that is signed by both parents and approved by the court later in the process. The Joint Legal Decision-making Agreement is part of the Parenting Plan contained in packet 4, "The Court Order."
4. Child support: Check which party should pay child support. (The box you check should match what you asked for in the petition). Indicate whether you would like past child support be paid using a retroactive calculation and which parent should pay.
5. Health, medical, dental insurance and health care expenses: Check which party should be responsible for health, medical and dental insurance.

6. Tax exemption: It is your responsibility to understand the information regarding tax exemption and how the Affordable Care Act can impact one or both parties if they are required to provide medical insurance.
 7. Other orders: Check this box only if you have made other requests to the court. If you check this box, write the additional orders you are requesting the court to make that were not covered elsewhere in your Petition.
- I. Declaration of party filing the petition: Sign the form. By doing so you are telling the court that everything contained in your Petition is true under penalty of perjury.

Notice regarding the Parent Information Program

This is an important document. You and the other parent must attend and complete a class in the Parent Information Program. The purpose of the Parent Information Program is to give parents information about the impact that divorce, the changes in the family unit, and/or court involvement have on children involved in a divorce, paternity, or legal decision-making case. This Notice applies to all parents who file an action for dissolution of marriage or legal separation, or any paternity proceeding, in which a party has requested that the court determine legal decision-making or parenting time on or after January 1, 1997, and to all other domestic relations cases if ordered by the court.

Make sure you read this notice, do what it says, and serve this notice on the other party.

PARENTING PLAN INFORMATION

A.R.S. § 25-401 defines legal decision-making and parenting time as follows:

1. "Legal Decision-Making" means the legal right and responsibility to make all nonemergency legal decisions for a child including those regarding education, health care, religious training and personal care decisions.
2. "Joint Legal Decision-Making" means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights nor responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the Court or the parents in the final judgment or order.

PARENTS PLEASE NOTE: Per A.R.S § 25-403.09, an award of joint legal decision-making or a substantially equal parenting time plan does not diminish the responsibility of either parent to provide for the support of the child. Also note that joint legal decision-making does not necessarily mean equal parenting time. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(E)

3. "Sole Legal Decision-Making" means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child.
4. "Parenting Time" means the schedule of time during which each parent has access to a child at specified times. Each parent during their scheduled parenting time is responsible for providing the child with food, clothing and shelter and may make routine decisions concerning the child's care.

You may view the "Parenting Time Guidelines" online at the Arizona Supreme Court's website.

Drafting a Parenting Plan:

The written parenting plan pays attention to how the parents will make decisions pertaining to the child(ren)'s education, health care, religious training, and personal care; it is a blend of specific information with generalized plans of action. It should reflect what the parents are currently doing or what they actually plan to do. It should reflect a commitment to the minor child(ren)'s needs as predominant.

If the parents cannot agree on a plan for legal decision-making or parenting time, each parent must submit a proposed parenting plan. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(A)

In order for the Court to approve a parenting plan, A.R.S. § 25-403.02 requires the Court to make the following findings:

- a. The best interests of the minor child(ren) are served;
- b. The plan designates legal decision-making as joint or sole;
- c. The plan sets forth each parent's rights and responsibilities for the personal care of the minor child(ren) and for decisions in areas such as education, health care, and religious training;
- d. The plan provides a practical schedule of parenting time for the child, including holidays and school vacations;

- e. The plan includes a procedure for exchanges of the child, including location and responsibility for transportation;
- f. The plan includes a procedure by which proposed changes, disputes and alleged breaches may be mediated or resolved, which may include the use of Conciliation Services or private counseling;
- g. The plan includes a procedure for periodic review (e.g., parents agree to review the terms of the agreement every 12 months.);
- h. The plan includes a procedure for communicating with each other about the child, including methods and frequency;
- i. The plan includes a statement that each party has read, understands, and will abide by the notification requirements of A.R.S. § 25-403.05(B). (A parent must immediately notify the other parent if the parent knows that a convicted/registered sex offender or a person who has been convicted of a dangerous crime against children may have access to the child. Notice must be provided (i) by first class mail, return receipt requested, (ii) by electronic means to an e-mail address the recipient provided to the parent for notification purposes, or (iii) by other communication accepted by the Court.)

The following questions may be used as a starting place when drafting a parenting plan:

1. The geographical location of the parents: Where do parents live relative to one another? What are their addresses? Permanent or temporary?
2. Arrangements regarding the residential requirements of the minor child(ren): How much time will the minor child(ren) spend with each parent? Be as specific as possible, including days and times.
3. Arrangements for holidays and vacations: What are your plans for summer vacation and school breaks? List specific details including dates and times.
4. Arrangements for education: How will decisions be made for educational matters? For example, if preschool age, what school will the minor child(ren) attend? If private school, who pays what?
5. Additional transportation arrangements: Will any additional transportation arrangements be needed? If so, what will be the responsibilities of each parent?
6. Determinations regarding minor child(ren)'s health care: For example, how will medical decisions be made? Who will provide insurance? How are non-insured expenses paid? Who decides on seeking non-emergency treatment? Is there a dental plan? If not, who will pay what?
7. Arrangements regarding extraordinary expenses: For example, what financial arrangements are made for the minor child(ren) (such as each sharing extraordinary expenditures and the parent with whom the minor child(ren) resides bearing the ordinary ones during the minor child(ren)'s residency)? A fixed amount per month?
8. Arrangements for minor child(ren)'s religious training, if any: For example, how will decisions be made for religious training? What, if any, are the plans for religious training?
9. Any other factors: What other arrangements (such as music lessons, sports/activity fees, camp or Scouts) are needed?

Step 5: File the papers at the court:

Go to the court to file your papers: The Court is open from 8 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday-Friday. You should go to the Court at least two hours before it closes. You may file your court papers at the Clerk of Superior Court filing counter at the following Superior Court locations:

Clerk of Superior Court
250 West Second Street
Yuma, Arizona 85364

Fees: A list of current fees is available from the Law Library Resource Center and from the Clerk of Superior Court's website.

If you cannot afford the filing fee and/or the fee for having the papers served by the Sheriff or by publication, you may request a deferral (payment plan) when you file your papers with the Clerk of Superior Court. Deferral Applications are available at no charge from the Law Library Resource Center.

Papers: Hand all three (3) sets of your court papers to the Clerk of Superior Court along with the correct filing fee.

Make sure you get the following back from the Clerk of Superior Court:

- Your set of copies
- The other party's set of copies

Step 6: Serve the papers on the other party. Read the packet at the Law Library Resource Center called "Service of Court Papers" that applies to your situation. This will explain how to serve the other party. Remember to file your Affidavit or Acceptance of Service as soon as the Other Party is served.

Serving papers on the state: (if required). The Office of the Attorney General (the "AG") will accept service by signing an Acceptance of Service form and returning the form for you to file with the Court. Information regarding serving the papers on the State of Arizona can also be found at the Law Library Resource Center in the packet called "Service of Court Papers."

Step 7: Wait. Depending on how and where you served the papers on the other party (in-state, out of state, by publication, etc.), he or she has a certain number of days to file a Response to tell the Court that he or she disagrees with your facts, or objects to the Orders you want the Court to make. You should receive a copy of the Response and a notice about when and where you must appear for any Court procedure or hearing.

If no Response is filed, you must file papers to tell the Court the other party defaulted - that is, the other party agrees with your request - or at least did not file papers to disagree, so the Court should move forward. See the Law Library Resource Center's "Default" packet and follow the timetable and procedures there to apply for your default court order.

THE COURT FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The parties have the following minor child(ren) (hereinafter the “minor child(ren)”):

Name: _____	Born: _____
Name: _____	Born: _____
Name: _____	Born: _____
Name: _____	Born: _____
Name: _____	Born: _____
Name: _____	Born: _____
Name: _____	Born: _____

2. An order regarding legal decision-making and/or parenting time in the best interests of the minor child(ren) (also referred to as a “Parenting Plan”) was entered by this Court on (insert date)

3. A.R.S. §25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parents in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded joint legal decision-making to the parents.

4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.

5. This order is binding upon the parents, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the parenting plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parents are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Joint Legal Decision-Making.

The parents have been awarded joint legal decision-making. As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans). In the event the parents cannot agree (select appropriate box):

Joint Decision-Making: Neither parent is entitled to any greater decision-making authority. No change can be made, nor any action taken, unless the parties agree or a court order resolves the issue.

Joint Decision-Making with a party having “Final” Authority: Subject to the terms set forth in the Parenting Plan, decisions will be made by (indicate which parent has “presumptive” or “final” authority):

Petitioner

Respondent

3. School Selection.

Enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school’s policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law. A parent may submit enrollment documentation to the school of choice solely for the purpose of reserving the minor child(ren)’s place at the school. Neither parent is restricted from selecting their preference of school for open enrollment purposes.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services:

- An evaluation as to the minor child(ren)’s eligibility for special services shall proceed so long as at least one parent consents.
- Both parents are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend.
- Both parents are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.
- Upon completion of any evaluation or assessments, if there is no agreement between the parties regarding the provision of special education and related special services, the decision of how to proceed must be decided in accordance with the legal decision-making orders of the court.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either parent access to their minor child(ren), nor may either parent instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each parent may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or another court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each parent’s home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either parent until the parents reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either parent may make decisions for the minor child(ren)’s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either parent’s right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parents are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither parent may restrict the other parent's access to information. Further, each parent is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parents are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g. ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each parent to have an individual login account, the parents must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other parent.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parents has equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parents may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Curriculum and Instruction Disputes.

In the event there is a disagreement between the parties as to the child(ren)'s involvement in any specific curricular activities, the subject matter being taught by the school (including books associated with the school curriculum), or the method of instruction, the issue shall be decided consistent with the legal decision-making authority assigned by court order. If neither parent has superior decision-making authority, the school shall implement its standard curriculum and method of instruction until such time that the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order.

11. Extra-Curricular Activities.

Each parent is authorized to sign consent forms for the child(ren) to participate in extra-curricular activities. In the event the parents disagree about the child(ren)'s involvement in such activities, the issue shall be addressed in accordance with the legal decision-making authority determined by the court. If neither parent has superior decision-making authority, the burden shall be on the parents, and not the schools, to resolve the issue through agreement or order of the court consistent with the legal decision-making orders entered by the court.

12. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.
