How to fill out the order for your legal decision-making, parenting time and child support

I. General information

What this Order means to you. A signed court Order is important because it determines the rights and responsibilities of both you and the other party. If either party does not obey the Order, then the other party can ask the Court for help in enforcing the terms of the Order.

Purpose. This Order is designed for parties who want to get a court order for:

- ✓ Legal Decision-making and parenting time – or –
- ✓ Legal Decision-making, parenting time and child support.

If you have a Default Hearing, this Order should repeat as closely as possible what you requested in your Petition. You should not write or mark something different in the Order from what you wrote in the Petition unless the other party has provided written consent to any changes, and unless the change clearly benefits the other party. If you try to make the Order different from the Petition, the judge will not sign the Order.

- ✓ If you want to change your requests to the court, you must file an amended petition and serve that petition on the other party.
- ✓ It is a good idea to have your Petition handy when you follow the instructions to fill out this Order.

If you are proceeding without a Hearing, see the Instructions and Procedures and forms included in this packet for the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without Hearing.

Reminder. When filling out any court forms, type or print with black ink only.
--

II. Instructions for completing the order:

A. Case identification

- Top left corner of the first page: Write in your name, and contact information. Check the box of the person you represent. If you have an attorney, write in the attorney State Bar Number.
- Write in the name of the Petitioner / Party A, the name of the Respondent / Party B and the case number in the appropriate spaces provided. These names should be written the same as they are written on the original Petition.

- Put only one check mark in the appropriate box on the right side of the page. If you are seeking child support in addition to legal decision-making and parenting time, put a mark in the first box. If you are seeking only legal decision-making and parenting time, check the box which states so.

B. Court findings section:

- This section generally mirrors the information in your Petition. Each number recites facts the Court uses to create the final Order.
- Item Numbers 1-3: These sections state that before the judge or commissioner signs the Order, he/she will have determined that the court has the legal power to make the orders in your case.
- Item Number 4: Write in the name(s) and birthdate(s) of the children to whom this court Order applies.
- Item Number 5A and 5B: Mark one box for Party A and one box for Party B, indicating whether Party A and/or Party have attended the Parent Information Program.
- Item Number 6: This section states that the Court will hold each party responsible for supporting the minor child or children mentioned in the Petition.
- Item Number 7 - Supervised Parenting Time: Mark the appropriate box indicating the same information that you wrote in the Petition. If you are requesting supervised parenting time –or– no parenting time for the other party, you must have a very good reason. Write that reason in the space provided.
- Item Number 8: If either party has been convicted of an alcohol or drug offense within the last twelve months, mark the box indicating this, which should be the same information that you wrote in the Petition. If you or the other party has been convicted of a drug or alcohol crime within the last 12 months, the Court must make sure that the legal decision-making and/or parenting time order or agreement is in the best interests of the minor child(ren).
- Item Number 9: Regarding domestic violence, mark the appropriate box and explain, if necessary, in the space provided.

C. Court orders section:

- 1.A. Primary residence: Mark the appropriate box indicating the same information that you wrote in the Petition.
- 1.B. Parenting time: Mark the appropriate box indicating the same information that you wrote in the Petition.
 - If the parenting time is supervised, write the name of the person who will supervise, on the space provided.
 - Also, mark the box to show who will pay the costs of the supervised parenting time.

Note: The Joint Legal Decision-making Agreement and Parenting Plan must be approved by the Court. IF approved, the Agreement and the Plan will be included as part of the Court Order.

- 1.C. Legal decision-making: Mark the appropriate box indicating the same information that you wrote in the Petition. If you mark the “Sole Authority” box, be sure to also mark one box indicating Party A or Party B.
2. Child support: If the Child Support Order will be included, mark the first box. Then, mark who is to pay the child support and how much to the other party. Otherwise, leave the space blank and the judicial officer will fill in the amount. Note: If there is a previous child support Order still in effect from a court in another state or county, do not mark this box.
3. Financial information: Both parents must exchange ongoing financial information every 2 years.
4. Other orders: If you requested other issues in the Petition that have not yet been addressed in this order, write the issue(s) in this space if you would like the judge to address the issue(s). Be specific and be sure you use the same or similar language to that used in your Petition.

Final appealable order: This Decree/Order/Judgment is a final order and may be appealed.

Judge’s signature: You do not have a valid court order until the Judge signs and dates the original order, which will occur at or after the default hearing or at the trial on the case. Be sure to get a certified copy of the signed order for your records.

Copy for other party: If you are the Party who filed the initial Petition and you have a default hearing, and the other Party was personally served with the court papers, (meaning that service was not done by “publication”) you must mail or give a copy of this Court Order to the other Party after the Judge has signed it.

- ✓ You must tell the Court you will do this by signing your name and date at the end of the court Order.
- ✓ After you get a certified copy of the signed order, make a copy for the other party (if the other party does not have a copy).
- ✓ Then, mail a copy of the signed and dated order to him or her.

PARENTING PLAN INFORMATION

A.R.S. § 25-401 defines legal decision-making and parenting time as follows:

1. "Legal Decision-Making" means the legal right and responsibility to make all nonemergency legal decisions for a child including those regarding education, health care, religious training and personal care decisions.
2. "Joint Legal Decision-Making" means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights nor responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the Court or the parents in the final judgment or order.

PARENTS PLEASE NOTE: Per A.R.S § 25-403.09, an award of joint legal decision-making or a substantially equal parenting time plan does not diminish the responsibility of either parent to provide for the support of the child. Also note that joint legal decision-making does not necessarily mean equal parenting time. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(E)

3. "Sole Legal Decision-Making" means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child.
4. "Parenting Time" means the schedule of time during which each parent has access to a child at specified times. Each parent during their scheduled parenting time is responsible for providing the child with food, clothing and shelter and may make routine decisions concerning the child's care.

You may view the "Parenting Time Guidelines" online at the Arizona Supreme Court's website.

Drafting a Parenting Plan:

The written parenting plan pays attention to how the parents will make decisions pertaining to the child(ren)'s education, health care, religious training, and personal care; it is a blend of specific information with generalized plans of action. It should reflect what the parents are currently doing or what they actually plan to do. It should reflect a commitment to the minor child(ren)'s needs as predominant.

If the parents cannot agree on a plan for legal decision-making or parenting time, each parent must submit a proposed parenting plan. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(A)

In order for the Court to approve a parenting plan, A.R.S. § 25-403.02 requires the Court to make the following findings:

- a. The best interests of the minor child(ren) are served;
- b. The plan designates legal decision-making as joint or sole;
- c. The plan sets forth each parent's rights and responsibilities for the personal care of the minor child(ren) and for decisions in areas such as education, health care, and religious training;
- d. The plan provides a practical schedule of parenting time for the child, including holidays and school vacations;

- e. The plan includes a procedure for exchanges of the child, including location and responsibility for transportation;
- f. The plan includes a procedure by which proposed changes, disputes and alleged breaches may be mediated or resolved, which may include the use of Conciliation Services or private counseling;
- g. The plan includes a procedure for periodic review (e.g., parents agree to review the terms of the agreement every 12 months.);
- h. The plan includes a procedure for communicating with each other about the child, including methods and frequency;
- i. The plan includes a statement that each party has read, understands, and will abide by the notification requirements of A.R.S. § 25-403.05(B). (A parent must immediately notify the other parent if the parent knows that a convicted/registered sex offender or a person who has been convicted of a dangerous crime against children may have access to the child. Notice must be provided (i) by first class mail, return receipt requested, (ii) by electronic means to an e-mail address the recipient provided to the parent for notification purposes, or (iii) by other communication accepted by the Court.)

The following questions may be used as a starting place when drafting a parenting plan:

1. The geographical location of the parents: Where do parents live relative to one another? What are their addresses? Permanent or temporary?
2. Arrangements regarding the residential requirements of the minor child(ren): How much time will the minor child(ren) spend with each parent? Be as specific as possible, including days and times.
3. Arrangements for holidays and vacations: What are your plans for summer vacation and school breaks? List specific details including dates and times.
4. Arrangements for education: How will decisions be made for educational matters? For example, if preschool age, what school will the minor child(ren) attend? If private school, who pays what?
5. Additional transportation arrangements: Will any additional transportation arrangements be needed? If so, what will be the responsibilities of each parent?
6. Determinations regarding minor child(ren)'s health care: For example, how will medical decisions be made? Who will provide insurance? How are non-insured expenses paid? Who decides on seeking non-emergency treatment? Is there a dental plan? If not, who will pay what?
7. Arrangements regarding extraordinary expenses: For example, what financial arrangements are made for the minor child(ren) (such as each sharing extraordinary expenditures and the parent with whom the minor child(ren) resides bearing the ordinary ones during the minor child(ren)'s residency)? A fixed amount per month?
8. Arrangements for minor child(ren)'s religious training, if any: For example, how will decisions be made for religious training? What, if any, are the plans for religious training?
9. Any other factors: What other arrangements (such as music lessons, sports/activity fees, camp or Scouts) are needed?

Instructions and Procedures for a Default Decree by Motion, without a Hearing

Requirements

Sometimes a court hearing is not required to get a default decree. If you meet the following requirements, you may use this “no hearing” process to request a default decree:

- ✓ All parties must be legally competent and sane.
- ✓ The Summons and Petition were served to the other party, other than by publication.
- ✓ The Petition requests to the Court are the same as the requests proposed in the default order.

This means, you cannot use this process if . . .

- the responding party was served by publication,
- if the other party is insane or incompetent, or
- if the other party has filed a response, or made an appearance in the cases, or
- the requests to the Court in the proposed default order are not the same as those requested in the Petition.

You must have already filed and mailed to the other party an Application and Affidavit for Default. Also, it must be at least ten (10) court (business) days since you filed and mailed the Application.

If you filed for divorce or legal separation, it must also have been at least 60 calendar days since service of the Summons and Petition was completed.

Instructions

Complete the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing.

1. Complete the top part of the page with your personal information, name of parties, and case number.
2. On the upper page right, mark the box that describes the kind of court order you are requesting (i.e., divorce, annulment, etc.).

 - Mark the boxes in front of the statements that are true.

4. SECTION B: (To be completed only by parties seeking a decree of dissolution, legal separation, or annulment)

- Mark the boxes that best apply to your situation.
- Note: Attachments. If you marked a box next to a statement that requires an “attachment,” be sure to attach the required document at the end of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. If you are missing an attachment or any required document, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

5. SECTION C: (To be completed only by parties seeking a judgment of paternity/maternity, and/or legal decision-making, parenting time or child support.)

- Mark the boxes that best apply to your situation.
- If the statement next to the box asks for an explanation, write it clearly in black ink.
- Note: Attachments. If you marked a box next to a statement that requires an “attachment,” be sure to attach the required document at the end of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. If you are missing an attachment or any required document, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

6. SECTION D: To be completed if it applies to you.

Note: Attachments. If you marked a box next to a statement that requires an “attachment,” be sure to attach the required document at the end of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. If you are missing an attachment or any required document, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

7. OATH or Affirmation: Sign and date this in front of the Clerk of Superior Court or Notary, with a picture identification.

8. Copy: Make three (3) copies of the original Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without a Hearing. (Make additional copy if the Arizona Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) is involved in your case.)

After completing instructions above, you are ready to complete the Decree/Judgment/Order, also in this packet.

Before you request a Default Decree by Motion without a Hearing, CHECK TO BE SURE THAT YOU:

- Properly served the Petition, Summons and other papers to other party and filed the proof of service. (Service cannot be done by publication if you are using this method (without a hearing)); AND

- If the other party is on active duty in the United State Military, you completed and notarized Service Member Civil Relief Act Waiver; AND
- Waited at least 61 days after the completion of service, if you filed for divorce or legal separation.

Complete the Default Decree/Judgment/Order.

1. See the instructions in this packet to complete the Default Decree/Judgment/Order.
2. If children are involved, there will be additional forms to complete, such as a Parenting Plan, Education Order (if applicable), Child Support Worksheet, Child Support Order, and Current Employer Information Sheet. See additional instructions in this packet.
3. Copy:
 - Make two (2) copies of the original Decree/Judgment/Order, plus attachments and any additional required forms. (Make additional copy if DCSS is involved in your case.)
 - Note: If you are missing an attachment or any required form, your case could be rescheduled for a hearing, which extends the process and delays your decree or court order.

If you will eFile your forms, you may not need as many paper copies. You will need a paper set of the filed forms to serve on the other party, Division of Child Support Services if they are involved in your case, and one for your judge or Family Administration (when required). For more information about how to eFile your papers, read the eFiling instructions:

- In some cases, the Judge may set a hearing. The court will send you notice of the hearing date and time.

Common reasons why your paperwork may be rejected:

- Incomplete: The Decree/Judgment/Order was not fully completed.
 - Not all applicable boxes were marked.
 - An explanation(s) was missing.
 - An attachment(s) was missing.
- Different Requests: Items asked for in the Decree/Judgment/Order were not the same as the items asked for in the Petition.
- Missing Documents: The original Decree/Judgment/Order and copies were not submitted with the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without Hearing.
- Overlooked True Statements: You did not mark all boxes on the Motion and Affidavit for Default Decree without Hearing as true statements.
- No notarized Waiver: Did not provide a notarized Service Members Civil Relief Act Waiver, if required.

Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure (ARFLP), Rule 44.1, allows for application for a default decree without hearing in Family cases for divorce, legal separation, annulment, maternity or paternity, money judgments, attorney fees, and spousal maintenance, but be WARNED:

- There are special legal requirements involved in qualifying for an annulment, and a default decree with no hearing.
- If your court papers do not fully explain how you meet those requirements, it could result in your case being delayed or dismissed.

Consulting an experienced attorney about whether your situation and your papers indicate you qualify for an annulment or a default decree, may help you to avoid unnecessary expense, delay, and disappointment.

- At least 60 days have passed since the other Party (Respondent) was served with the dissolution or legal separation papers, OR my case is for annulment or to establish maternity/paternity and/or legal decision-making/parenting time/child support and there is no 60-day waiting period.
