

Instructions: How to fill out the form “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting”

Use this form only if:

- ✓ There has been a petition/complaint and an answer/response filed in your case, and
- ✓ One (or more) other parties is represented by a lawyer – and you are not.
- ✓ You appeared and participated in arbitration proceedings for your case, and
- ✓ The arbitration resulted in an arbitration award or a final disposition, and
- ✓ You disagree with the arbitration award, or final arbitration disposition, and
- ✓ You are within the 20-day timeframe. (You may file this form with the Clerk of Superior Court within 20 days after the arbitration award is filed under A.R.C.P. Rule 77(b), or 20 days after the date upon which the notice of decision becomes an award under A.R.C.P. Rule 76(c), whichever occurs first.)

STEP 1: Fill out the “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting” form.

A. General instructions

1. Type or print using black ink only!
2. Make sure your form is titled “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting.”
3. In the top left corner of the first page fill in the information requested.
4. Blank line on left side. “Name of Petitioner/Plaintiff.” In this space, put the name of the party who filed the original case. If the other party filed the original case, he/she will be the Petitioner/Plaintiff. In the space that says, “Name of Respondent/Defendant,” fill in the name of the Respondent/Defendant. Whoever was the Respondent/Defendant for the filing of the original case will be the Respondent/Defendant for all other papers filed in this case.
5. “Case Number” line. Fill in your “Case Number.” Your case number stays the same any time papers are filed in your case. Then fill in the name of the judge assigned to your case. If you do not know the name of the judge assigned to your case, call the court where your case was filed

B. Information about my case

1. Appeal from Arbitration. Write in the date you appeared and participated in the arbitration. Also write in the date the appeal decision or final disposition was filed with the court.
2. Set my case for Trial. Put an "X" in this box if you want the Court to set your case for trial. Then add the date your case will be ready for trial.
3. Civil Case Discovery, Witness and Exhibit lists.
  - Discovery: Read this section carefully. If you have questions about "Discovery" you should ask a lawyer for help. Put an "X" in the discovery box only if you believe you satisfy all the requirements of this section.
  - Witness and Exhibit lists: If you have read ARCP Rule 26.1 and comply with its requirements as well as the requirements stated in this paragraph, place an "x" in the box.
4. Information about your lawyer. If you are not represented by an attorney, mark the box to indicate you are not represented by a lawyer
5. Information about the other party. If the other party is represented by an attorney, put the attorney's name, address, city, state, zip code, and telephone number in the space provided. If the other party is not represented by an attorney, write in the other party's name, address, city, state, zip code, and telephone number in this space.
6. Preference for trial. If you do not know whether your case is entitled to preference, see a lawyer for help. If you are certain about whether your case is entitled to preference, place an "X" in the appropriate box.
7. Short case. Some cases can be heard in an hour or less. If a lawyer has told you that your case can be heard in an hour or less, check the "yes" box; otherwise, check the "no" box. If you are "not sure," check the "not sure" box.

8. Estimated length of trial. Indicate how long you think the trial will take. If you will be having a lot of witnesses, experts, and/or if there is an attorney for the other side, you may want to request "1 Day." If there are no witnesses, other than you and the other party, and you don't have a lot to tell the judge, the case may take only a few hours. The Court will decide how much time to schedule for the trial. If the trial takes longer than the time allowed, the judge can continue the trial to another date and time.
9. Jury trial. If your case is a civil case and you want a jury trial, check the "yes" box; otherwise check the "no" box.
10. Deposit on appeal. Place an "X" in the first box if you plan to make a deposit with the Clerk of Superior Court at the time of filing. If you are unable to make a deposit at the time of filing, check mark the box beside that statement.
11. Certificate of mailing or delivery. Place a check mark in the appropriate box and date on the matching line about the delivery method of the documents to both the judge and the other party. Then write in the name and address of the other party or their attorney to whom you chose to send the documents.
12. Under penalty of perjury. Signing this document is a statement to the Court that the information you disclosed on these documents is true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief.
  - You or your attorney must sign your name to confirm to the Court your statements about serving the other party are true.

STEP 2: Go to the "Procedures" page. After you have filled out the appeal form, read and follow the "Procedures: What to do with the "Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting."

Procedures: What to do with the “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting” form after you complete it

Use these procedures only if you have filled out the “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting” and you want to schedule a trial in your case.

STEP 1: Review the form called “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting” (form). Make sure that the form was completed in black ink. Sign and date the form before you make the copies, even though you have not actually delivered or mailed all the things you promised on the last page of the form.

STEP 2: Copy. Make 3 copies of the form and follow these instructions exactly:

- Make 1 copy for the judicial officer (Judge) assigned to your case,
- 1 copy for your records,
- 1 copy for the other party (if there is more than 1 other party, you will need a copy for each party.)

STEP 3: Go to the Clerk of Superior Court filing counter.

- Hand the original and all copies of the form to the Clerk of Superior Court where you filed your case.
- Ask the Clerk of Superior Court to stamp the copies and return them to you. These stamped copies are now “conformed” copies. The stamp provides proof the original form was filed.
- Copy 1: Mail this copy to the other party; or if the party is represented by an attorney, mail or deliver one copy to his/her attorney. Remember if there is more than 1 other party, you must mail a photocopy to each party.
- Copy 2: Provide one copy to the Judge assigned to your case by:
  1. Delivering a copy to Civil Court Administration, or
  2. Mailing it directly to the judicial officer assigned to your case, or
  3. Placing a copy in for the Judge at the reception, located outside the Clerk's Office.
- Copy 3: Keep this copy for your records.

STEP 4: Wait to receive a notice from the Court. Once you have filed the “Appeal from Arbitration and Motion for Trial Setting,” the office of the Judge assigned to your case will contact you to tell you the dates of your pretrial conference, and trial. The document you will receive in the mail is called a “Minute Entry,” and it will give you instructions about what to file before the Trial.
