Information and instructions for completing a "Resolution Statement" for divorce or legal separation

GENERAL INFORMATION

Arizona Rule of Family Law Procedure 49 (Rule 49) requires both parties to share information in family law cases. It requires each party send to the other party a detailed statement with the specific positions the party proposes to resolve all issues. It also requires parties to exchange detailed facts and documents concerning issues of child support, legal decision-making, parenting time, spousal maintenance, witnesses, attorney fees, property, and debt.

Rule 49 allows full discovery of important facts to avoid "litigation by ambush." The Rule promotes greater professionalism among counsel, with the ultimate goal of increasing voluntary cooperation and exchange of information. The Rule is also meant to help the parties focus on the problems that are truly in dispute by resolving (by the free exchange of information) issues where they unexpectedly agree. Disclosure rules also encourage the trial courts to deal with discovery abuse in a strong and forthright fashion. Ultimately, obedience to the discovery rules enables a more efficient, less expensive, and more accessible Arizona judicial system.

RESOLUTION STATEMENT

- 1. What is a "Resolution Statement?" A Resolution Statement is a detailed description of the position a party proposes to resolve all the issues in a Family Law case. The Resolution Statement is one part of the fact sharing process required by Rule 49 of the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.
- 2. When do I file the "Resolution Statement?" You file the Resolution Statement 30 days after exchanging with the other party your initial disclosure information, or as ordered by the Court.
- 3. Where do I file the "Resolution Statement?" You file the Resolution Statement with the Clerk of Superior Court, Family Case Filing Counter.
- 4. Who must file a "Resolution Statement?" Every party involved in a divorce, or any non-divorce case involving paternity, legal decision-making, parenting time or child support must file a resolution statement, unless the court permits otherwise.
- 5. Do I have to serve the "Resolution Statement" on the other party? Yes. A Resolution Statement must be served upon all parties, or their attorneys. In addition to filing the original statement with the Clerk of Superior Court, a party must provide a file-stamped copy to the assigned judge and serve (either mail or hand-deliver) a copy on all other parties or their attorneys.
- 6. What is the difference between a "Resolution Statement" and a "Disclosure Statement?" The Resolution Statement requests different information than the Disclosure Statement. Also, the Resolution Statement is filed with the Clerk of Superior Court, whereas the Disclosure Statement is not filed with the Clerk of Superior Court.
