MARRIAGE WITHOUT CHILDREN

To get a Consent Decree when both parties agree

Forms and Instructions

Summary Consent Decree Process for dissolution (divorce) of non-covenant marriage

CHECKLIST

You may use the forms in this packet if . . .

- ✓ Both spouses want to get a divorce, AND,
- ✓ Both spouses agree to ALL the terms of the divorce and will work together to complete, sign and file the necessary papers, AND,
- ✓ You do not have a “covenant” marriage, (these papers will not work for a covenant marriage)* AND,
- ✓ Either spouse has lived in Arizona at least 90 days before you file the forms; or either spouse is a member of the armed forces and has been stationed in Arizona at least 90 days before you file AND,
- ✓ You believe that the marriage is irretrievably broken (you and your spouse cannot make this marriage work) AND,
- ✓ Either spouse has tried to resolve your marital problems through Conciliation Services, or there is no point in trying to resolve your marital problems.

*What is a “Covenant Marriage?” As of August 21, 1998, the Arizona Legislature created a type of marriage called “covenant” marriage. To have a covenant marriage, both spouses would have had to:

1. sign papers asking to have a covenant marriage; AND
2. attend pre-marital counseling; AND
3. the marriage license says it’s a “Covenant Marriage.”

If you were married before August 21, 1998 and have not signed papers to convert your marriage to a covenant marriage, you do not have a covenant marriage. If you still have questions about whether you have a covenant marriage, see a lawyer for help.

READ ME: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results. A list of lawyers you may hire to advise you on handling your own case or to perform specific tasks, as well as a list of court-approved mediators can be found on the Law Library Resource Center website.

Instructions: How to fill out papers for the summary consent decree process

Domestic Violence: Domestic violence can be part of any marriage. Domestic violence includes physical violence such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking or threats of physical violence directed against you and/or your children and/or verbal abuse used to control you and/or your children.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, and you do not want your address to be known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a “Request for Protected Address” and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your divorce papers. Just write “protected” in the space on the form where you are asked for this information. You must tell the Clerk of Superior Court your address and phone number as soon as possible so the court can get in touch with you. The court will keep your address protected.

General information about filling out forms.

- Type or print all forms in black ink.
- You must fill out the top left of the first page on every form. This tells the Court who is filing the document. This will be the Petitioner/Party A’s information, except when noted below.
- You will not have a Case Number, unless you have a court order for Child Support. If so, use that Case Number. Otherwise, leave the space blank for the Clerk of Superior Court to assign a new Case Number.
- Whomever is the “Petitioner/Party A” will remain the “Petitioner/Party A” throughout the whole case. This will never change.
- Whomever is the “Respondent/Party B” will remain the “Respondent/Party B” throughout the whole case. This will never change.

Complete the following forms

- ✓ Family Department Sensitive Data Cover Sheet
 - Both parties need to complete their own Cover Sheet.
 - If you have minor children, use the form “with children.” If you do not have minor children, use the form “without children.”

- The top left information is for the party filing the form.
- No copies are needed; neither party will provide a copy to the other party. This form is information just for the Court.

✓ Preliminary Injunction

- This document tells the parties things they cannot do until the Court enters the decree.
- A copy must go to the responding party.

✓ Notice of Your Rights About Health Insurance Coverage

- This is an important document that explains what to do about health care coverage for yourself and any minor child(ren). Read it carefully.
- A copy must go to the responding party.

✓ Notice Regarding Creditors

- This is an important document that tells both spouses that each is responsible for community debts to creditors even though the court order or decree says that only one of you are responsible. Read this notice to find out how to obtain information from your creditors about account balances.
- A copy must go to the responding party.

✓ Notice of Intent to File Consent Decree for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage

- Both parties sign and date the form.

✓ Petition and Response for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage

- Numbers correspond to numbered paragraphs or sections on the form.
 1. Complete Party A's name, address, date of birth, job title and years/month lived in Arizona.
 2. Complete Party B's name, address, date of birth, job title and years/month lived in Arizona.
 3. Complete information about the marriage, including:
 - Date of marriage. If you do not know this information, and you were married in Yuma County, you may get a copy of your marriage license from the Clerk of Superior Court (250 West Second Street, Yuma, AZ 85364) If you were married in another county in Arizona, go to the Clerk of Superior Court at the county seat where you were married.

- City and State of marriage. If married outside the United States, indicate the Country where married.
- Read the statements that follow the checkboxes. Check the box for each statement that is TRUE. If any statement is NOT true or if you fail to check the box to indicate the statement is true, your case may not proceed.
 - Check the first box to indicate that you do not have a “covenant” marriage. Read the Checklist in this packet for more information on covenant marriages.
 - Check the second box to indicate your marriage is irretrievably broken. “Irretrievably broken” means that your marriage is broken beyond repair and there is no chance of getting back together with your spouse.
 - Check the third box to indicate you and your spouse have attended a free conference with trained staff through the Court – or that it would not help.
 - If the fourth box (regarding legal decision-making) is not checked, the Court will not be able to enter orders regarding legal decision-making of the children. Generally, the children must have lived in Arizona for the past six (6) months, or since birth if younger than 6 months.
- 4. 90-day requirement. At least one of the parties must have lived in Arizona for at least 90 days before filing the papers. Or, at least one party must have been stationed in Arizona while a member of the Armed forces for at least 90 days before filing the papers. Before you file for Divorce, this statement MUST be true. If it is not true, you cannot file for divorce in Arizona until it becomes true.
- 5. If you have minor children, list their name, date of birth, and address.
- 6. Statement and Waivers. These statements are necessary to proceed with the summary consent decree process.
 - a. This waiver means the Respondent will not require the Petitioner to formally serve them under Arizona law, and both parties agree that they have settled all issues in their divorce.
 - b. This waiver means both parties understand they have a right to request free conciliation services to try to resolve issues to remain married. However, they choose not to use those services.
 - c. This waiver means both parties understand the Petitioner could proceed by default if a Petition was filed instead. Default is when the Petitioner makes requests of the Court and the Respondent chooses not to disagree and not file a response; the Petitioner can then apply to enter “default” and submit a Default Decree to make orders of the requests in the Petition. Some parties proceed by default to save money on the filing fee of the Response. Proceeding with the summary consent decree process means both parties will be required to pay a filing fee and will submit a Consent Decree for the Judge to sign into orders.

- d. This statement means that when Respondent / Party B signs the “Petition and Response,” it has the same effect as if the Respondent had been served a Summons. This means the Respondent will not need to be “served” with the divorce.
- e. This means the parties understand if they wish to withdraw their agreement, the party who no longer agrees must file a motion with the Court no later than 60 days after filing of the “Petition and Response.” If you change your mind, see the instructions and procedures and form for a “Motion to Withdraw Notice of Intent.”
- f. This means the parties are filing the joint “Petition and Response” instead of filing separate “Petition” and “Response” forms.

7. Written Agreement. This is stating that the parties are attaching a copy of their agreement, i.e. Consent Decree, to the “Petition and Response.” The agreement tells the Court information about the case and what the parties are asking the Court to sign as an order.

- Joint Requests to the Court.

A. Under this section, the parties are stating they wish the Court to grant their request for a divorce.

B. This means the parties are asking the Court to enter orders as detailed in the Consent Decree.

- Oath or affirmation and verification. Both parties are required to sign in front of a Clerk of Superior Court or a notary public. By doing so, you are telling the Court that everything contained in the “Petition and Response” is true, under penalty of perjury.

✓ Consent Decree

- See the separate instructions about how to fill out the Consent Decree.

How to complete a Spousal Maintenance Worksheet (Applies only to cases in which the original petition for dissolution or legal separation was filed on or after September 24, 2022)

In a dissolution of marriage (divorce) or legal separation, one party may request that the court order the other party to pay “spousal maintenance.” This is financial support paid by one party to the other party. The court considers certain statutory factors to decide whether a party is eligible for spousal maintenance. In these cases, either party may request that the other pay spousal maintenance.

Spousal Maintenance Guidelines:

For a case filed on or after September 24, 2022, if a person is eligible for spousal maintenance, then the court uses the Arizona Spousal Maintenance Guidelines to determine the amount and duration of the award for spousal maintenance.

The Guidelines can be found here:

<https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Child-Support-Family-Law-Information/Spousal-Maintenance-Guidelines>.

Spousal Maintenance Calculator:

In any dissolution of marriage or legal separation case that was originally filed on or after September 24, 2022, when a party requests spousal maintenance, or requests to change a past spousal maintenance court order, a completed Spousal Maintenance Worksheet must be included under the following situations.

- When filing an Application for Entry of a Default Decree and the party seeking default proceeds by motion without a hearing (Rule 44.1, ARFLP)
- When the parties agree to spousal maintenance and are submitting either a Summary Consent Decree or Consent Decree for Court approval (Rules 45 and 45.1, ARFLP).

The worksheet is created using the FREE online Spousal Maintenance Calculator. Access to the internet is required. The online Spousal Maintenance Calculator can be found here:

<https://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/app/selfsuffcalc/>.

If you do not have access to the internet and/or a printer, you may use the computers at any Law Library Resource Center location. There is a small, per-page charge for printing.

Next Steps:

After completing the Spousal Maintenance Calculator, print out the Spousal Maintenance Worksheet in order to file it with your other paperwork.

When you have completed all necessary forms, go to the “Procedures” page and follow the steps.

Procedures: How to file papers with the court to ask for a summary consent decree of a non-covenant marriage

- STEP 1. Both parties must complete their own “Family Department Sensitive Data Coversheet.” You do not need to make a copy of this document unless you want one for your records.
- STEP 2. Attach a COPY of the “Consent Decree” to your “Petition and Response for Dissolution.”
- STEP 3. Make copies of the following documents after you have filled them out. You will need the following:
- Preliminary Injunction – 1 original, 2 copies

If you have minor children with the other party, you must also prepare and make copies of the following:

- STEP 4. Separate your documents into four (4) sets, as follows:

Set 1 - Originals for Clerk of Superior Court:

- Family Department Sensitive Data Cover Sheet (one from each Party)
- Preliminary Injunction
- Notice of Intent to File Consent Decree
- Petition and Response for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage... with attached copy of completed Consent Decree

- Petition and Response for Dissolution of a Non-Covenant Marriage... with attached copy of completed Consent Decree
- Notice of Your Rights About Health Insurance Coverage
- Notice Regarding Creditors

Set 4 – Originals and copies for Judge:

- 1 file stamped copy of the Notice of Intent to File Consent Decree
- 1 original and 2 copies of signed Consent Decree
- Copy of receipts for both filing fees

STEP 5. File the papers. Pay the fees. Request an extra copy of the receipt if you want one for your records.

Go to the Clerk of Superior Court filing counters at one of the following locations. The Court is open from 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday. You should go to the Court at least two hours before it closes.

Clerk of Superior Court
250 West Second Street
Yuma, Arizona 85364

The filing fee is due at the time of filing. The total fee is currently $573.00 ($324.00 for Petition, $249.00 for Response). The amount is subject to change without notice. A list of current fees is available from the Clerk of Superior Court.

The Clerk accepts the following forms of payment: cash, money order, wire transfer, credit cards, and debit cards (run as a credit card transaction). Business checks are accepted from law firms, process servicers, runner services, and certified document preparers, only when it's a clearly identified business check, imprinted with the firm's business address.

If you cannot afford the filing fee, you may request a deferral (payment plan) when you file your papers with the Clerk. Deferral Applications are available at no charge from the Law Library Resource Center and Clerk's office.

Hand sets 1, 2 and 3 of your court papers to the Clerk of Superior Court along with the filing fee. The Clerk will file in the originals and give you back conformed copies. Each party should take one set.

- STEP 6. Deliver Set 4 to the Information Desk for the Assigned Judge. Include two (2) pre-stamped large envelopes with sufficient postage, one addressed to each party. If applicable, you will also need to include a stamped envelope addressed to the Attorney General*. These will be used to mail the final documents to each party.
- STEP 7. There is a mandatory waiting period of 60 days from the date in which the documents are filed before a judge may enter the final decree. This is known as the "waiting period."
- STEP 8. Wait for your judge to review the paperwork. By law, the Decree will be held until the end of the waiting period of at least 60 days from the date of filing has passed.

If the parties reconcile, wish to change their consent decree or other final orders, or no longer agree to terms of settlement, a motion or stipulation must be submitted before the 60-day waiting period is up. Information on these processes are in the document "Instructions and procedures to withdraw, amend or dismiss Consent."

What happens next? It is within the Judge's/Commissioner's discretion whether to accept or reject the Decree, or to schedule a court hearing.

1. If your consent decree is accepted, the Judge/Commissioner will sign the original Decree and have it filed with the Clerk of Superior Court. The Court will send a copy of the signed Decree to each party using the envelopes you provided. This is your notification that your divorce is now final. You are not divorced until the Judge/Commissioner signs the Decree.
2. If your consent decree is rejected, the Court will send you a "Correction Notice" informing you of the mistakes with the documents. Follow the instructions on the "Correction Notice." If the mistakes cannot be corrected, see a lawyer for help.
3. If the judge/commissioner schedules a hearing, the Court will send notice of a scheduled date, time, and location for a hearing which both parties must attend to answer any questions the Judge/Commissioner may have.

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Name of Respondent/Party B

Warning: This is an official Order from the court. It affects your rights. Read this Order immediately and carefully. If you do not understand it, contact a lawyer for help.

Your spouse has filed a Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) or Petition for Annulment or Petition for Legal Separation with the court. This Order is made at the direction of the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Arizona in Yuma County. This Order has the same force and effect as any order signed by the judge. You and your spouse must obey this Order. This Order may be enforced by any remedy available under the law, including an Order of Contempt of Court. To help you understand this Order, we have provided this explanation. Read the explanation and then read the statute itself. If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer for help.

EXPLANATION: (What does this Order mean to you?)

1. ACTIONS FORBIDDEN BY THIS ORDER: From the time the Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) or Petition for Annulment or Petition for Legal Separation is filed with the court, until the judge signs the Decree, or until further order of the court, both the Petitioner and the Respondent shall not do any of the following things:

- ✓ You may not hide earnings or community property from your spouse, AND
- ✓ You may not take out a loan on the community property, AND

- ✓ You may not sell the community property or give it away to someone, UNLESS you have the written permission of your spouse or written permission from the court. The law allows for situations in which you may need to transfer joint or community property as part of the everyday running of a business, or if the sale of community property is necessary to meet necessities of life, such as food, shelter, or clothing, or court fees and attorney fees associated with this action. If this applies to you, you should see a lawyer for help, AND
- ✓ Do not harass or bother your spouse or the children, AND
- ✓ Do not physically abuse or threaten your spouse or the children, AND
- ✓ Do not take the minor children, common to your marriage, out of the State of Arizona for any reasons, without a written agreement between you and your spouse or a Court Order, before you take the minor children out of the State.
- ✓ Do not remove, or cause to be removed, the other party or the minor children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS: Arizona Law, A.R.S. § 25-315(A) provides:

- 1(a). RESTRICTIONS ON PROPERTY OF THE MARRIAGE: That both parties are enjoined from transferring, encumbering, concealing, selling, or otherwise disposing of any of the joint, common or community property of the parties, except if related to the usual course of business, the necessities of life, or court fees and reasonable attorney fees associated with an action filed under this article, without the written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
- 1(b). REQUIREMENTS OF BEHAVIOR: That both parties are enjoined from molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace, or committing an assault or battery on, the person of the other party or any natural or adopted child of the parties.
- 1(c). RESTRICTIONS ABOUT YOUR MINOR CHILDREN: That both parties are enjoined from removing any natural or adopted minor child(ren) of the parties, then residing in Arizona, from this state without the prior written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
- 1(d). RESTRICTIONS ABOUT INSURANCE: That both parties are enjoined from removing, or causing to be removed, the other party or the minor children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.
2. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS ORDER: This Order is effective against the person who filed for divorce, annulment, or legal separation (the Petitioner) when the Petition was filed with the court. It is effective against the other party (the Respondent) when it is served on the other party, or on actual notice of the Order, whichever is sooner. This Court Order is effective until a final Decree of Dissolution, Legal Separation, or Annulment is filed or the action is dismissed.

3. ORDER TO PETITIONER: You must serve a copy of this Order upon the Respondent, along with a copy of the Petition for Dissolution, Annulment or Legal Separation, the Summons, and other required court papers.
4. WARNING: This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Order, the court may find you in contempt of court. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed by disobeying this Order.
5. LAW ENFORCEMENT: You or your spouse may file a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency. You may obtain a certified copy from the Clerk of Superior Court that issues this Order. If any changes are made to this Order and you have filed a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency, you must notify them of the changes. If you are the person that brought this action, you must also file evidence with the law enforcement agency that this Order was served on your spouse.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS ABOUT HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE WHEN A PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE) IS FILED
(A.R.S. §20-1377 and §20-1408)

Petitioner/Party A: _____

Case #: _____

Respondent/Party B: _____

Warning: This is an important legal notice. Your rights to health insurance coverage could be affected after your divorce is final. Read this notice carefully. If you do not understand this notice, you should call an attorney for advice about your legal rights and obligations.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION IF YOU ARE ON YOUR SPOUSE'S INSURANCE PLAN: When a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (papers for a divorce decree) is filed, you and/or your children may continue to be covered under your spouse's health insurance policy. Arizona law allows the dependent spouse and/or children to continue to be covered, but you must take some steps to protect your rights.

WHAT INSURANCE COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOU, AND HOW TO GET IT: If you are covered by your spouse's health insurance, and you want to continue to be covered after the divorce is final, you must contact the insurance company as soon as possible, and you must start to pay the monthly insurance premium within 31 days of the date the insurance would otherwise stop.

If you decide you want to be covered, the insurer can choose whether to continue coverage under the current policy, or to change the policy to your name. If the policy is changed to your name, it is called a "converted"; policy. If the policy is converted by the insurer, the insurer must provide you the same or the most similar level of coverage available, unless you ask for a lower level of coverage.

WHAT COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOUR CHILDREN: If you choose to continue coverage as a dependent spouse, you can also choose to continue coverage for your dependent children if you are responsible for their care or support.

PREEXISTING CONDITIONS OR EXCLUSIONS FROM INSURANCE COVERAGE: Whether the insurance is continued or converted, the insurance must be provided to you without proof of insurability and without exclusions for coverage other than what was previously excluded before the insurance was continued or converted.

LIMITS ON RIGHTS TO INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN: You may not be entitled to continued or converted coverage if you are eligible for Medicare or for coverage by other similar types of insurance which together with the continued coverage would make you over-insured. However, dependent children of a person who is eligible for Medicare may be covered by a continuance or a conversion. If you have questions about coverage, check with the insurer and/or the spouse's employer.

OTHER OPTIONS FOR COVERAGE: Divorce is considered to be a life changing event that, under the federal Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act ("COBRA"), may qualify you and/or your dependents with the right to continue health coverage under the spouse's group plan, if the employer has 20 or more employees. To find out more about your COBRA rights, you can visit the United States Department of Labor ("USDOL") website at <https://www.dol.gov/> and search for COBRA, or you can call the USDOL at 1-866-487-2365. Divorce is also a life-changing event under the federal Affordable Care Act, which qualifies you and/or your dependents for a special enrollment period to obtain an individual health insurance policy regardless of any health conditions. Additional information is available at <https://www.healthcare.gov/> or by calling 1-800-318-2596.

Warning to the spouse filing the petition for dissolution (Divorce): This Notice must be served on your spouse together with the Petition for Dissolution, the Summons, and the Preliminary Injunction.

NOTICE REGARDING CREDITORS

Name of Respondent/Party B

Arizona law requires all actions for Divorce, Annulment, or Legal Separation to include this Notice and for the person filing for Divorce, Annulment, or Legal Separation to serve this Notice on the other party. (ARS § 25-318(H)).

You and your spouse are responsible for community debts. In your property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution, annulment, or legal separation, the court may assign responsibility for certain community debts to one spouse or the other. Please be aware that a court order that does this is binding on the spouses only and does not necessarily relieve either of you from your responsibility for these community debts. These debts are matters of contract between both of you and your creditors (such as banks, credit unions, credit card issuers, finance companies, utility companies, medical providers and retailers). Since your creditors are not parties to this court case, they are not bound by court orders or any agreements you and your spouse reach in this case. On request, the court may impose a lien against the separate property of a spouse to secure payment of debts that the court orders that spouse to pay.

Contact creditors: You may want to contact your creditors to discuss your debts as well as the possible effects of your court case on your debts. To assist you in identifying your creditors, you may obtain a copy of your spouse's credit report by making a written request to the court for an order requiring a credit reporting agency to release the report to you. Within thirty (30) days after receipt of a request from a spouse who is party to a divorce or legal separation, which includes the court and cause number of the action, creditors are required, by law, to
