PETITION AND PAPERS FOR LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN

CHECKLIST

You may use the forms and instructions in this packet if:

- ✓ You want to file for legal separation because:
 - ✓ You and your spouse desire to live separate and apart, or
 - ✓ Your marriage is irretrievably broken (can't be fixed) but you are not ready to file for divorce;
- (Note: You do not have to file for legal separation before filing for divorce); AND
- ✓ You do not have a "covenant" marriage, or since you were married you have not agreed to change your marriage to a "covenant" marriage (These papers will not work for a covenant marriage);* AND
- ✓ You and your spouse do not have minor children with each other, (There are separate forms and instructions for legal separation with children); AND
- ✓ You or your spouse either live in Arizona or are a member of the armed services and stationed in Arizona; AND
- ✓ You or your spouse have tried to make your marriage work, or have tried to resolve the issues related to the legal separation through Conciliation Court, or there is no point in trying to because the marriage is over and conciliation will not help.

Warning: If the other party does not want a Legal Separation, the Court may change the Petition for Legal Separation into a Petition for Divorce if you and/or your spouse have lived in Arizona for the last 90 days prior to filing the Petition for Legal Separation.

- *What is a "Covenant Marriage"? To have a covenant marriage, both husband and wife would have had to:
1. sign papers (essentially a contract) requesting a covenant marriage;
 2. attend pre-marital counseling; AND
 3. your marriage license would say "Covenant Marriage."

If you were married before August 21, 1998 and have not signed papers to convert your marriage to a covenant marriage, you do not have a covenant marriage.

See A.R.S. § 25-904 for requirements for legal separation for a covenant marriage. If you still have questions about whether you have a covenant marriage, see a lawyer for help.

READ ME: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results. A list of lawyers you may hire to advise you on handling your own case or to perform specific tasks, as well as a list of court-approved mediators can be found on the Law Library Resource Center website.

INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO FILL OUT LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN

IMPORTANT INFORMATION about LEGAL SEPARATION:

- If your spouse does not want a Legal Separation, the Court will not order a legal separation. However, the Court can change the Petition for Legal Separation into a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (divorce), if you and/or your spouse have lived in Arizona for the last 90 days prior to filing the Petition for Legal Separation and your spouse wants a divorce and not a legal separation.
- Residency requirements. You OR your spouse must have lived in Arizona, or been stationed in Arizona while in the Armed Forces, before the day you filed the Petition for Legal Separation. IF IT IS NOT TRUE, YOU CANNOT FILE FOR LEGAL SEPARATION
- Desire to live separate and apart. Your marriage must be irretrievably broken (over) or you and/or your spouse must desire to live separate and apart. If this is not a true statement, you cannot file for Legal Separation

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE:

- Domestic violence can be part of any marriage. Domestic violence includes physical violence directed against you or your children, such as hitting, slapping, pushing, or kicking. Domestic violence includes threats of physical violence against you and your children, or verbal abuse used to control you.
- Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, and you do not want your address to be known, to protect yourself or your children from further violence, and the other party does not know where you live, you must file a "Request for Protected Address" and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Request, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. Instead, write "protected" in the space where the Court asks you for this information. You must tell the Clerk of Superior Court your address and phone number as soon as possible so that the Court can get in contact with you.

INFORMATION ABOUT PROPERTY AND DEBT:

- Community property is generally any property you and your spouse purchased during your marriage or paid for during the marriage, no matter who uses the property or who paid the money. Unless property was a gift or inheritance, all property gotten (acquired) during the marriage is community property, and both you and your spouse are entitled to roughly an equal share of this property.
- Community debts or bills are generally any debt you and your spouse acquired during your marriage, no matter who spent the money.
- If you have questions, or have a lot of community property or debt, you should speak with an attorney BEFORE filing your Petition and other papers.
- You should also know that the Judge will order that the community property rights and liabilities acquired by marriage end as to all property, income, debts, liabilities received or incurred after the entry of a decree of legal separation, unless both parties agree to the contrary

- Types of property:

- a) Real Property (property or home). Most property has a legal description such as "LOT 77, PINE TREE ACRES, according to Book 111 of Maps," which appears on your deed papers. You should use this description in the Petition along with the complete address of the property. A cemetery plot is considered real property.
- b) Household furniture. This includes sofas, beds, tables, and so forth.
- c) Household furnishings. This includes things in the house other than furniture, for example: dishes, small appliances, rugs, and so forth.
- d) Pension/retirement fund/profit sharing/stock plans/401K. You and your spouse each generally have a right to a one-half interest in the other spouse's plan, for the number of years you were married. The longer the marriage, the greater your financial interest in your spouse's plan. (Your interest, usually, includes up to 50 percent of the benefits/plan if you have been married the whole time the plan has existed.) If you or your spouse have one of these plans, you must see an attorney about a document called a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or QDRO. A QDRO is a very specialized legal document that requires professional assistance to prepare. The Law Library Resource Center and the Court do not have Qualified Domestic Relations Order forms.

INFORMATION ABOUT SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE/SUPPORT

- A term used to describe money paid from one spouse to the other spouse as part of a divorce, annulment, or legal separation. You may know the term as "alimony".
- Spousal maintenance/support is designed as a safety net for a spouse who cannot provide for his or her needs or who meets other requirements listed on the Petition under paragraph 7. The idea behind spousal maintenance/support is that accomplishments during your marriage, including increases in earning potential and living standards, are shared and earned by BOTH parties to a marriage.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILLING OUT THE FORMS IN THIS PACKET

- Print or type in black ink.
- Fill in your name in the space that says "Name of Petitioner / Party A." Remember, you will be PARTY A through the whole case. (This includes any emergency petitions, temporary petitions, and divorce petitions.) In the space that says "Name of Respondent/Party B," fill in the name of your spouse. Your spouse will be PARTY B for the rest of this case. (This includes any emergency petitions, temporary petitions, and divorce petitions.)
- Leave the Case Number blank. When you file your papers, you will receive a case number.
- WAIT to sign the Petition until you are in front of a notary or deputy Clerk of Superior Court.

NEXT STEP: After you fill out all of the forms in this packet, read the form called Procedures: How to File Papers for Legal Separation without Minor Children.

How to complete a Spousal Maintenance Worksheet (Applies only to cases in which the original petition for dissolution or legal separation was filed on or after September 24, 2022)

In a dissolution of marriage (divorce) or legal separation, one party may request that the court order the other party to pay “spousal maintenance.” This is financial support paid by one party to the other party. The court considers certain statutory factors to decide whether a party is eligible for spousal maintenance. In these cases, either party may request that the other pay spousal maintenance.

Spousal Maintenance Guidelines:

For a case filed on or after September 24, 2022, if a person is eligible for spousal maintenance, then the court uses the Arizona Spousal Maintenance Guidelines to determine the amount and duration of the award for spousal maintenance.

The Guidelines can be found here:

<https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Child-Support-Family-Law-Information/Spousal-Maintenance-Guidelines>.

Default Information for Spousal Maintenance:

In any dissolution of marriage or legal separation case that was originally filed on or after September 24, 2022, when a party requests spousal maintenance, or requests to change a past spousal maintenance court order, a completed Default Information for Spousal Maintenance must be included under the following situations.

- When filing an Application for Entry of a Default Decree and the party seeking default proceeds by Motion without a Hearing (Rule 44.1, ARFLP)
- When the parties agree to spousal maintenance and are submitting either a Summary Consent Decree or Consent Decree for Court approval (Rules 45 and 45.1, ARFLP).

If you do not have access to the internet and/or a printer, you may use the computers at any Law Library Resource Center location. There is a small, per-page charge for printing.

Next Steps:

After completing the Spousal Maintenance Calculator, print out the Spousal Maintenance Worksheet in order to file it with your other paperwork.

When you have completed all necessary forms, go to the “Procedures” page and follow the steps.

NOTICE REGARDING CREDITORS

Name of Respondent / Party B

ARIZONA LAW REQUIRES all actions for DIVORCE or LEGAL SEPARATION to include this NOTICE and for the person filing for Divorce or Legal Separation to SERVE this NOTICE on the other party. (ARS §25-318(F)).

YOU AND YOUR SPOUSE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR COMMUNITY DEBTS. The court usually requires/orders one spouse or the other to pay certain community debts in, or through, the Decree of Dissolution or Legal Separation. A court order that does this is binding on the spouses only, not the creditors. You and your spouse are legally responsible for these community debts whether you are married, divorced, or legally separated. These debts are matters of contract between both of you and your creditors (such as banks, credit unions, credit card companies, utility companies, medical providers and retailers). On request, the court may impose a lien against the separate property of a spouse to secure payment of certain community debts.

CONTACT CREDITORS: You may want to contact your creditors to discuss the debts and the effects of your divorce/legal separation on your debts. To assist you in identifying your creditors, you may obtain a copy of your spouse's credit report by making a written request to the court for an order requiring a credit reporting agency to release the report to you. The credit report will help you identify accounts, account numbers and account balances. In addition, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a request from a spouse who is party to a divorce or legal separation, which includes the court and cause number of the action, creditors are required, by law, to provide information as to the balance and account status of any debts for which you or your spouse may be liable to the creditor.

WARNING: If you do not understand this notice, you should contact an attorney for advice about your legal rights and obligations.

The following page contains a sample form you may choose to mail to creditors to get information about debts owed by you or your spouse. It is not a required form.
DO NOT FILE THE NEXT PAGE WITH THE COURT.

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Warning: This is an official Order from the court. It affects your rights. Read this Order immediately and carefully. If you do not understand it, contact a lawyer for help.

Your spouse has filed a Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) or Petition for Annulment or Petition for Legal Separation with the court. This Order is made at the direction of the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Arizona in Yuma County. This Order has the same force and effect as any order signed by the judge. You and your spouse must obey this Order. This Order may be enforced by any remedy available under the law, including an Order of Contempt of Court. To help you understand this Order, we have provided this explanation. Read the explanation and then read the statute itself. If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer for help.

EXPLANATION: (What does this Order mean to you?)

1. ACTIONS FORBIDDEN BY THIS ORDER: From the time the Petition for Dissolution (Divorce) or Petition for Annulment or Petition for Legal Separation is filed with the court, until the judge signs the Decree, or until further order of the court, both the Petitioner and the Respondent shall not do any of the following things:

- ✓ You may not hide earnings or community property from your spouse, AND
- ✓ You may not take out a loan on the community property, AND

- ✓ You may not sell the community property or give it away to someone, UNLESS you have the written permission of your spouse or written permission from the court. The law allows for situations in which you may need to transfer joint or community property as part of the everyday running of a business, or if the sale of community property is necessary to meet necessities of life, such as food, shelter, or clothing, or court fees and attorney fees associated with this action. If this applies to you, you should see a lawyer for help, AND
- ✓ Do not harass or bother your spouse or the children, AND
- ✓ Do not physically abuse or threaten your spouse or the children, AND
- ✓ Do not take the minor children, common to your marriage, out of the State of Arizona for any reasons, without a written agreement between you and your spouse or a Court Order, before you take the minor children out of the State.
- ✓ Do not remove, or cause to be removed, the other party or the minor children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS: Arizona Law, A.R.S. § 25-315(A) provides:

- 1(a). RESTRICTIONS ON PROPERTY OF THE MARRIAGE: That both parties are enjoined from transferring, encumbering, concealing, selling, or otherwise disposing of any of the joint, common or community property of the parties, except if related to the usual course of business, the necessities of life, or court fees and reasonable attorney fees associated with an action filed under this article, without the written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
- 1(b). REQUIREMENTS OF BEHAVIOR: That both parties are enjoined from molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace, or committing an assault or battery on, the person of the other party or any natural or adopted child of the parties.
- 1(c). RESTRICTIONS ABOUT YOUR MINOR CHILDREN: That both parties are enjoined from removing any natural or adopted minor child(ren) of the parties, then residing in Arizona, from this state without the prior written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
- 1(d). RESTRICTIONS ABOUT INSURANCE: That both parties are enjoined from removing, or causing to be removed, the other party or the minor children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.
2. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS ORDER: This Order is effective against the person who filed for divorce, annulment, or legal separation (the Petitioner) when the Petition was filed with the court. It is effective against the other party (the Respondent) when it is served on the other party, or on actual notice of the Order, whichever is sooner. This Court Order is effective until a final Decree of Dissolution, Legal Separation, or Annulment is filed or the action is dismissed.

3. ORDER TO PETITIONER: You must serve a copy of this Order upon the Respondent, along with a copy of the Petition for Dissolution, Annulment or Legal Separation, the Summons, and other required court papers.
4. WARNING: This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Order, the court may find you in contempt of court. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed by disobeying this Order.
5. LAW ENFORCEMENT: You or your spouse may file a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency. You may obtain a certified copy from the Clerk of Superior Court that issues this Order. If any changes are made to this Order and you have filed a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency, you must notify them of the changes. Arizona law requires all actions for Divorce, Annulment, or Legal Separation to include this Notice and for the person filing for Divorce, Annulment, or Legal Separation to serve this Notice on the other party. (ARS § 25-318(H)).

You and your spouse are responsible for community debts. In your property settlement agreement or decree of dissolution, annulment, or legal separation, the court may assign responsibility for certain community debts to one spouse or the other. Please be aware that a court order that does this is binding on the spouses only and does not necessarily relieve either of you from your responsibility for these community debts. These debts are matters of contract between both of you and your creditors (such as banks, credit unions, credit card issuers, finance companies, utility companies, medical providers and retailers). Since your creditors are not parties to this court case, they are not bound by court orders or any agreements you and your spouse reach in this case. On request, the court may impose a lien against the separate property of a spouse to secure payment of debts that the court orders that spouse to pay.

Contact creditors: You may want to contact your creditors to discuss your debts as well as the possible effects of your court case on your debts. To assist you in identifying your creditors, you may obtain a copy of your spouse's credit report by making a written request to the court for an order requiring a credit reporting agency to release the report to you.
