- Complete the “Sensitive Data Sheet” (Do NOT copy or provide this document to the other party).
- Make sure your form is titled “RESPONSE TO PETITION FOR LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT MINOR CHILDREN.”

- WAIT to sign the Response until you are in front of the Deputy Clerk of Superior Court or a Notary.

INFORMATION ABOUT PROPERTY AND DEBTS:

- Community property is generally any property you and your spouse purchased during your marriage or that was paid for during the marriage, regardless of who uses the property or who actually paid the money.
- Unless property was a gift or inheritance, all property gotten during the marriage is community property, and both you and your spouse are entitled to a roughly equal share of this property.
- Community debts, likewise, belong to both people, regardless of who spent the money.
- If you have questions, or have a lot of community assets, you may want to consult an attorney regarding issues of community property and debts BEFORE filing your Response and other papers.
- It is very important that you be specific in your responses about the property and debt. Describe the property and debt that should go to or be paid by you in detail and describe the property and debt that should go to or be paid by your spouse in detail. Never list an item and check both Party A and Party B box.

Types of property include:

- a) Real estate (property or home). Most property also has a legal description such as "LOT 77, PINE TREE ACRES, according to Book 111 of Maps," etc. You should use this description, which will appear on your deed papers, if you have it, as well as the complete address of the property when listing the property in the Response. Cemetery plots are also considered real property.
- b) Household furniture. This includes sofas, beds, tables, etc.
- c) Household furnishings. This generally includes other things in the house other than furniture, e.g. dishes, small appliances, rugs, etc.
- d) Other items (explain). List the things that you specifically want to go to one person or another that have not already been listed.
- e) Pension/retirement fund/profit sharing/stock plan. You and your spouse each generally have a right to a one-half interest in any spouse's plan, ONLY for the number of years you were married. The longer you have been married, the greater your financial interest in a spouse's plan, up to 50 percent if you have been together the whole period of the plan. If you mark on the Response that you or your spouse has one of these plans, you should see an attorney about a document called a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or QDRO. A QDRO is a very specialized legal document that requires a professional's assistance to prepare. To find out what the actual cash value and present day value of the pension plan is, you may want to consult with an accountant experienced in valuing pension plans.

INFORMATION ABOUT SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE/SUPPORT:

- Spousal maintenance/support is the term used to describe money paid from one spouse to the other spouse as part of a Divorce or Legal Separation Agreement or Order. You may know the term as alimony.
- The money is designed as a safety net for a spouse who cannot provide for his or her needs or who meets other requirements listed.
- The idea behind spousal maintenance/support (alimony) is that accomplishments during your marriage, including increases in earning potential and living standards are shared and earned by BOTH parties to a marriage.

INFORMATION ABOUT CONCILIATION.

- The court has a service called Conciliation. Conciliation allows you to meet with trained professionals to resolve the issues of your marriage or the issues in dispute.

How to complete a Spousal Maintenance Worksheet (Applies only to cases in which the original petition for dissolution or legal separation was filed on or after September 24, 2022)

In a dissolution of marriage (divorce) or legal separation, one party may request that the court order the other party to pay “spousal maintenance.” This is financial support paid by one party to the other party. The court considers certain statutory factors to decide whether a party is eligible for spousal maintenance. In these cases, either party may request that the other pay spousal maintenance.

Spousal Maintenance Guidelines:

For a case filed on or after September 24, 2022, if a person is eligible for spousal maintenance, then the court uses the Arizona Spousal Maintenance Guidelines to determine the amount and duration of the award for spousal maintenance.

The Guidelines can be found here:

<https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Child-Support-Family-Law-Information/Spousal-Maintenance-Guidelines>.

Spousal Maintenance Calculator:

In any dissolution of marriage or legal separation case that was originally filed on or after September 24, 2022, when a party requests spousal maintenance, or requests to change a past spousal maintenance court order, a completed Spousal Maintenance Worksheet must be included under the following situations.

- When filing an Application for Entry of a Default Decree and the party seeking default proceeds by motion without a hearing (Rule 44.1, ARFLP)
- When the parties agree to spousal maintenance and are submitting either a Summary Consent Decree or Consent Decree for Court approval (Rules 45 and 45.1, ARFLP).

The worksheet is created using the FREE online Spousal Maintenance Calculator. Access to the internet is required. The online Spousal Maintenance Calculator can be found here:

<https://www.superiorcourt.maricopa.gov/app/selfsuffcalc/>.

If you do not have access to the internet and/or a printer, you may use the computers at any Law Library Resource Center location. There is a small, per-page charge for printing.

Next Steps:

After completing the Spousal Maintenance Calculator, print out the Spousal Maintenance Worksheet in order to file it with your other paperwork.

When you have completed all necessary forms, go to the “Procedures” page and follow the steps.

Helpful Information: How to file a response to a petition for legal separation without minor children

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE:

- Domestic violence can be part of any marriage. Domestic violence can include physical violence, such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking directed against you and/or your children, and threats of physical violence made against you and/or your children, and/or regular verbal abuse used to control you and/or your children.
- All court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence and the other party does not know your address, you must file a "Request for Protected Address" and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. Then, write "protected" where asked for this information and update the Clerk of Superior Court with an address and phone number as soon as possible. The Clerk of Superior Court will keep your address confidential.

PAPERS YOU SHOULD HAVE RECEIVED WITH THE PETITION FOR LEGAL SEPARATION:

SUMMONS: You have been summoned to appear in court. The Summons tells you how many calendar days you have to file a Response, depending on how you were served with the court papers. Be sure to file a WRITTEN RESPONSE on time. If the time for you to file a WRITTEN RESPONSE has passed, your spouse must complete an "Application and Affidavit for Entry of Default" and send you a copy of that document. You will have 10 more days in which to file your "Written Response". If you do not file a WRITTEN RESPONSE ON TIME, a default judgment can be entered. That means, you will not get to tell the judge your side of the story.

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION: This is an order from the court to both spouses about what you CAN and CANNOT do with property, minor children, and other issues while the legal separation is pending. If you or your spouse do not obey this order, the party who disobeys it can be in serious trouble with the court. If your spouse disobeys the order, see a lawyer for help on what to do. The Law Library Resource Center has a list of lawyers who will help you help yourself, and this list tells how much they charge to help you.

INFORMATION FOR CONCILIATION COURT: You may or may not have received a paper on this. There is no requirement that your spouse serve this document on you. In either case, the court has services to help couples with their marriage, called "Conciliation" and "Mediation". You can ask for an appointment by filing a written Petition, to discuss your marriage with these court professionals. You can get the forms for the appointment at the Law Library Resource Center.

PETITION FOR LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT CHILDREN: This is the form your spouse completed to tell the court his or her side of the story about the marriage. Read each and every word very carefully, and decide what you want to do. Here are your choices:

1. Do nothing. This means your spouse can get a legal separation and tell the judge his or her side of the story, without you telling your side at all. This is called a "default." Even in these cases, the judge will try to decide what is best, but it is never a good idea to ignore the court proceeding and have a court order that you had no input on. You should see a lawyer before you decide to do nothing.
2. Decide with your spouse how you want to handle everything: property, debt, spousal maintenance (alimony), and everything else about the marriage. Then you and your spouse file papers in the court stating your agreement on everything. This is called a "consent or stipulation." This is often the best way to proceed, if you and your spouse desire to live separate and apart, and can talk about the critical issues to decide how you both want to handle the legal separation. Mediators can help you with this. The Law Library Resource Center has a list of mediators, and how much they charge to you.
3. File a Response stating your side of the story, and how you want to handle all of the issues. This will make your case a "contested matter." But, even if you originally file a Response, you and your spouse can still decide to agree on something, or everything, and file court papers for a "consent or stipulation." Mediators can help you with this, and the Law Library Resource Center has a list of mediators, and how much they charge to help you.

HOW TO CALCULATE the LAST DAY to FILE YOUR RESPONSE:

- It is better to prepare and file the Response before the LAST DAY to FILE your Response. The LAST DAY to FILE RESPONSE may be calculated using the timetable below. It is helpful to use a calendar when calculating the last day to file.
- USE TIMETABLE BELOW. If the last day to file your response falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you DO NOT count that day.
- INCLUDE WEEKENDS AND HOLIDAYS IN YOUR COUNT until you reach the number of days under the "COUNT" column in the Time - Table below. If you file a written response with the court on time, the Petitioner CANNOT PROCEED BY DEFAULT.
