Part 1: Completing and Filing the Court Papers

(Instructions and Forms)

TO REGISTER A FOREIGN (OUT-OF-STATE) FAMILY SUPPORT ORDER

CHECKLIST

You may use this packet if . . .

- ✓ You have one or more support orders from another state regarding:
  - family support (child support or spousal maintenance (alimony)) or
  - income withholding for payment of family support, or both, AND
- ✓ You want to register the order(s) so that you may now or later ask the Court in Arizona to:
  - enforce or modify the order, or
  - declare which of several orders is the controlling order, and to register that order.

DO NOT use this packet if . . .

- ✓ You want to ask an Arizona court to enforce or modify the out-of-state orders. Separate forms are required if you want to ask an Arizona court to enforce or modify the orders.
- ✓ You want to register an out-of-state legal decision-making or parenting time court order.

IMPORTANT:

1. Remember: filing this application today with the Court does not necessarily mean the Court has jurisdiction to modify or enforce this out-of-state order.
2. For an Arizona court to have power to modify (change) a support order, either:
  - All parties must have moved from the state where the order was issued, the person who is requesting the modification does not live in Arizona and the other party lives in Arizona, OR If one party still lives in the State where the order was issued and the other party lives in Arizona, both parties must have filed a “consent to transfer” in the court where the order was issued.
3. The forms in this packet only apply to registering family support orders.

READ ME: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results. You may find a list of lawyers to advise you on handling your own case or to perform specific tasks, and a list of court-approved mediators on the Law Library Resource Center website.

INSTRUCTIONS: HOW TO FILL OUT THE FORMS TO REGISTER A FOREIGN (out-of-state) FAMILY SUPPORT ORDER.

PLEASE NOTE:

- The papers in this packet serve only to ask the Court to register the other state's order.
  - Remember: Filing your application today in this Court does not necessarily mean the Court has jurisdiction to modify or enforce the out-of-state order.
  - Separate forms are required to request that the Court modify or enforce the out-of-state order being registered. These forms are available at the Law Library Resource Center. Requests to modify or enforce can be filed at the same time as the request to register the foreign order, or later.
- For an Arizona court to have power to modify (change) a support order, either:
  - One party still lives in the state that issued the Order, either the child or other party lives in Arizona and both parties have signed and filed a Consent in the court that signed the Order that allows Arizona to modify the support Order OR
  - No one lives in the state that issued the Order, the person who is requesting the modification does not live in Arizona and the other party lives in Arizona OR
  - Everyone lives in Arizona.
- The State of Arizona's Division of Child Support Services (DCSS) may be able to enforce the other state's order without you having to go through the court registration process if requested by you or the family support enforcement agency of the state that issued the order. (A.R.S. § 25-1287)

1. A. Fill in the information requested about the other state's (non-Arizona) order to be registered. 2. Answer “Yes” if the order described in “1” is the only order under which money is still owed, whether for arrears, meaning overdue support payments, or current, ongoing child or spousal support. Clerk of Superior Court
250 W. 2nd Street
Yuma, Arizona 85364

FEES: There is no fee for filing to register another state's support order. But note there is a fee to file the (separate) papers to request that the registered order be enforced or modified by this Court. #### AFTER YOU FILE:

- The Court will notify the non-registering party of your request to register the other state's order in Arizona and, if necessary, to determine a controlling order. Notice will include copies of orders involved and related documents.
- Those receiving notice have twenty (20) days to request a hearing to object or otherwise respond to the order being registered in Arizona.
- Failure to dispute the validity of the order within the 20 days will result in confirmation of the order, assumption that the amount of arrears said to be owed (if any) is correct, and bar later attempts to dispute any matter that could have been brought up at this time. A.R.S. § 25-1308
- If a non-registering party requests a hearing, the Court will notify all parties of the date, time and place of the hearing.

A party disputing the validity or enforcement of a registered order or seeking to vacate (cancel) the registration has the burden of proving one or more of the defenses listed in A.R.S. § 25-1307.

WHAT THE COURT WILL DO:

If a party presents evidence establishing a full or partial defense, the Court may:

- Stay (halt or prevent) enforcement of the registered order,
- Continue the proceeding to permit introduction of additional relevant evidence, or
- Enforce the uncontested parts of the order.

If the contesting party does not establish a defense to the validity of the order itself or to enforcement of the order, the Court may issue an order confirming the order. A.R.S. § 25-1307 (C) Once an order has been confirmed, later attempts to dispute any matter that could have been brought up at the time of registration are barred. A.R.S. § 25-1308.
