CHECKLIST

You may use the forms and instructions in this packet if . . .

- ✓ You want a court order that declares paternity, legal decision-making (custody), parenting time, and (optionally) support for minor children, AND
- ✓ Paternity has not already been legally established for at least one of the children to be named in the court order*, AND
- ✓ The same person is the father of all children to be included in the court order, AND
- ✓ The minor children have lived in Arizona for at least 6 months (or since birth if younger than 6 months) before you file the petition, or you talked to a lawyer who advised that you could pursue the case in Arizona at this time.

DO NOT USE THE FORMS and instructions in this packet if:

- X Someone other than the person named as the father in this case is already listed as the father on the birth certificate for any child for whom you are asking for a court order in this case.
- X Paternity has already been legally established by other means* for all children for whom you are seeking a court order in this matter.*

* For children born after July 1996: If the father's name appears on the birth certificate as a result of the parents having signed an Affidavit of Paternity in the hospital at time of birth or afterwards, paternity has already been established for that child and you do not need to establish paternity through the court. A.R.S. § 25-812 (C).

If the father is listed on the birth certificate or paternity has otherwise already been legally established for all children for whom you want a court order, see the Law Library Resource Center packet to Establish Legal Decision-Making (Custody), Parenting Time and Support to determine if it applies to your situation.

Instructions: How to fill out paternity, legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, and child support forms

When to use this packet:

- Use this packet if you want to get a court order for paternity, legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, and child support and you do not already have an order. If you want a court order for legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time, and you have a support order, the court will also review the current child support order. If the child support order needs to be changed, the court will do so. If there is no support order, the court will establish child support along with paternity, legal decision-making (legal custody) and parenting time.
- If you have a paternity order or the father's name is already on the birth certificate of all children for whom the court order is requested but you do not have a legal decision-making order, you may use the separate forms to establish legal decision-making, parenting time and child support (when paternity has already been established) instead.
- Important notice about when you can bring a legal decision-making case in the Superior Court in Arizona: Generally, the child or children must have resided in Arizona for at least 6 months, or since birth if younger than 6 months old. Arizona must be the minor child(ren)'s primary place of residence before you file. If you have questions regarding this requirement, see a lawyer before filing.
- Important notice about when you can sue another person in Arizona for paternity or child support: You can sue another person in Arizona to establish, enforce, or change a support order, or establish paternity, if one of the following statements is true about the other person:
 - The person is a resident of Arizona; or
 - You serve the person with the court papers in Arizona. (See the Law Library Resource Center packet on "Service" if you have any questions.); or
 - The person agrees to have the case heard in Arizona and files written papers in the court case; or
 - The person lived with the minor child in Arizona at some time; or
 - The person lived in this state and provided pre-birth expenses or support for the child; or
 - The minor child lives in this state because of the acts or directions of that person; or
 - The person had sexual intercourse in this state and the minor child may have been conceived; or
 - The person signed an affidavit acknowledging paternity that was filed in this state; or
 - The person signed an affidavit acknowledging paternity, or
 - The person did any other acts that substantially connect the person with this state (see a lawyer to help you decide this).

Domestic Violence:

Domestic violence can be part of any relationship. Domestic violence includes physical violence directed against you or your children, such as hitting, slapping, pushing, or kicking. Domestic violence includes threats of physical violence made against you and your children, or regular verbal abuse used to control you.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, or if you do not want your address known to protect yourself or your minor children from further violence, you must file a Request for Protected Address and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. If the Court grants your Request, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your court papers. If possible, get a P.O. Box or use another address on these papers. If you have no other address or phone where you can be reached when you file your court papers, write “protected” in the space where you are asked for this information. You must tell the Clerk of Superior Court an address and phone number as soon as possible.

Petition for court Order for Paternity and legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, and child support

Use this form if you want to get a court order for paternity, along with orders for legal decision-making, parenting time and child support.

- Make sure your form states “Petition for Paternity, Legal Decision-making (Legal Custody), Parenting Time and Child Support” in the upper right-hand part of the first page.
- In the top left corner of the first page, fill out: your name; address (if not protected); city, state and zip code; telephone number; and your ATLAS number (if applicable).
- If there is not an existing Court Order, in the space that says, “Name of Petitioner/Party A,” fill in your name. You will be the Petitioner/Party A though the whole case. In the space that says, “Name of Respondent/Party B,” fill in the name of the other party, who will be the Respondent/Party B for the rest of your case. Leave “Case Number” blank. The Clerk of Superior Court will fill in the case number when you file your court papers.

Note: If you have an existing family court case in Yuma County against the same party, use your existing case number and fill in the names of the parties as it is stated in the current case. If you do not know your existing case number, ask the Clerk before you file your petition.

A. General information:

1. Fill in your name, address (if not protected), and date of birth. This is basic information about you, and your relationship to the children listed in this Petition.
2. Fill in the name of the other party, his or her address, and date of birth. This is basic information about the other party, and his or her relationship to the minor children listed in this Petition.
3. This box should be checked if it is true that you are starting this lawsuit in Arizona because either you, the other party, or the minor children live in Yuma County.
4. Check one or more boxes about why you can pursue your court case against the other party in Arizona.

B. Statements about paternity:

5. Why do you think the person is the father of these minor children? Check whichever box describes your situation.
 - Affidavit: Check this box if both you and the other party signed an Affidavit of Paternity stating that one of the parties in this case is the father of the minor child(ren).
 - Birth Certificate: Check this box and print the father's name here if the father is named on each minor child's birth certificate. Attach a certified copy of the birth certificate(s) to the complaint – or if a photocopy, be prepared to present the certified copy in court.

- Blood Test: Check this box if paternity has been established through a DNA blood test of the mother, father and minor child(ren). Check the party found to be the father. Attach a copy of the blood test result and/or resulting court order to the complaint.
- Parties Living Together: Check this box if the parties were living together and having sex during the 10 months before the birth of the minor child(ren).
- Sexual intercourse: Check this box if the parties were not living together but had sex at the date the child was conceived, and to your knowledge the mother did not have sex with anyone else at that time.
- Other: Check this box if there is another reason paternity is correct. Explain.

6. Tell the court whether the mother was married at the time or within 10 months before time the minor children who are the subject of your request for court order were born or conceived. If she was, you must add the mother's spouse to the court case, even if you say that mother's spouse was not a parent of the minor child(ren).

C. Other information about the minor children: If you are aware of court cases about the minor children, you need to tell the court. Attach a copy of any order about legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time, or child support to the Petition (IF the order is NOT from the Superior Court in Yuma County).

7. Child Support: Check which party should pay child support. Indicate whether you would like past child support to be paid using a retroactive calculation and which parent should pay.

8. Fill out where the minor children from this action have been living for the past 5 years. If any children are under age 5, put the information about where they have been living since birth. Write each minor child's name; the address where the minor child lived; the dates the minor child lived at each address; whom the minor child lived with; and the relationship of that person to the child. While you may not remember the dates and addresses, you must fill this information out as completely as possible.

9. The Court must know if there have been other cases involving legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time or child support of the minor children in this case, even if you were not a party. If there are no other legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time cases, or you don't know of any, check the second box and go on. If you have been involved in any way with this type of Court case, check the first box and give the requested information. Tell the Court what happened and what is going on in the other case(s).

10. You must tell the Court if you have information regarding any court case involving issues other than legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time of the minor child(ren). If your answer is "no," check the second box and go on. If there is another case, check the first box and give as much information as possible. This information could affect you or your minor children's rights in this case.

11. If you know of another person other than the other party to this case who has physical custody (has the child or children living with him or her) or who is claiming legal decision-making or parenting time rights to any of the minor children, check the first box and supply the requested information. If you know of such a person, you must include him or her as a party in this court case. If not, check the second box and go on.

D. Other statements to the Court:

12. Medical Expenses: If you were required to pay for expenses related to the birth of your child, such as hospital and doctor bills, you can check this box to request the father to pay some or all of these expenses.
13. Other expenses: This tells the Court that the parties should pay for bills not covered by insurance in an amount equal to their respective incomes.
14. Parent Information Program: This tells the Court if you have already completed the Parenting Information Program.
15. Domestic Violence: This tells the Court if there was domestic violence in the relationship and relates to a request for joint legal decision-making (joint legal custody), if you intend to ask for joint legal decision-making. If you are not sure what this means, see the paragraph on Domestic Violence on the first page of these instructions. Check the box that best describes your situation. If domestic violence has not occurred, go on.
16. Drug Conviction within last twelve months: This tells the Court whether you or the other Party have been convicted of a drug or alcohol offense within the last twelve months.

E. Requests to the court for paternity, legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and child support: This requests that the Court make Orders relating to issues such as paternity, legal decision-making (legal custody), parenting time and child support.

1. Paternity: Check this box and put the father's full name on the line provided to tell the Court you want a ruling as to the father's identity.
2. Birth Certificate: Write the father's full name as it should appear on the child's birth certificate.
3. Child(Ren)'s Last Name: Check this box only if you want the minor child(ren)'s last name changed. Write in the name you want (Party A's or Party B's).
4. Primary Residence of minor children, Parenting Time, and authority for Legal Decision-making
 - A. Primary Residence: Check one box only. Mark the box for the Party you want the minor children to live with more than 50% of the time.

- B. Parenting Time: Check one box only. You can ask that the non-custodial parent (the parent having physical custody of the child less than 50% of the time) have one of the following types of parenting time:

Reasonable parenting time. This suggests an amount of parenting time appropriate to the age of the child as set forth in the Parenting Plan, filed with the Petition.

Supervised or no parenting time.

- You may request supervised or no parenting time if Party A or Party B cannot adequately care for the minor children or cannot do so without another person present.
- You may request this if the other party abuses drugs or alcohol; is violent or abusive; or, does not have the parenting skills to care for a child without another person present.
- Supervised or no parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the minor child(ren).
- You must write in why you say the parenting time should be supervised or no parenting time allowed.

No parenting time.

- Check this option only if either Party A or Party B has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the minor child's physical and emotional health, or if there is a criminal Court Order stating there is to be no contact between the child and either Party A or Party B.
- This is used as a last resort to protect the child.

- C. Legal Decision-making: Mark the option for sole legal decision-making (sole legal custody) if you are asking that one parent be responsible for the legal decision-making of the children. If you are asking for joint legal decision-making (joint legal custody), you will need to sign the Joint Legal Decision-making (joint legal custody) Agreement which is part of the Parenting Plan.

5. Child Support: Check which party should pay child support. (The box you check should match what is on your completed Child Support Worksheet.) Check the next box if you want the Court to order past support and check which party should pay past support.
6. Mother's Expenses: Check this box indicating if the other party should be required to pay for expenses relating to the birth of the child.
7. Health, Medical, Dental Insurance and Health Care Expenses: Check which party should be responsible for health, medical and dental insurance.
8. Testing and Costs: This section asks that, if the other party contests paternity, you want the Court to order cooperation with any blood or tissue tests necessary to establish paternity. It also asks the Court to award you costs and fees if the other party contests paternity.

9. Tax Exemption: It is your responsibility to understand the information regarding tax exemption and how the Affordable Care Act can impact one or both parties if they are required to provide medical insurance.
10. Other Orders: Write the additional orders you are requesting the Court to make that were not covered in your Petition.

Under Penalty of Perjury: Sign this form in front of a Deputy Clerk of Superior Court (at the filing counter) or a Notary Public. By doing so, you declaring to the Court under penalty of prosecution for perjury that everything contained in your Petition is true.

Notice regarding the Parent Information Program (PIP)

This is an important document. You and the other parent must attend and complete a class in the Parent Information Program. The purpose of the Parent Information Program is to give parents information about the impacts that divorce, changes in the family unit, and/or court involvement have on children involved in a divorce, paternity, or other family court case. This Notice applies to all parents who file an action for divorce or legal separation, or any family court proceeding, in which a party has requested that the court determine legal decision-making (legal custody) or parenting time on or after January 1, 1997, and to all other domestic relations cases if ordered by the Court.

Read this notice. Do what it says, and serve this notice on the other party.

PARENTING PLAN INFORMATION

1. "Legal Decision-Making" means the legal right and responsibility to make all nonemergency legal decisions for a child including those regarding education, health care, religious training and personal care decisions.
2. "Joint Legal Decision-Making" means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights nor responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the Court or the parents in the final judgment or order.

PARENTS PLEASE NOTE: Per A.R.S. § 25-403.09, an award of joint legal decision-making or a substantially equal parenting time plan does not diminish the responsibility of either parent to provide for the support of the child. Also note that joint legal decision-making does not necessarily mean equal parenting time. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(E)

3. "Sole Legal Decision-Making" means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child.
4. "Parenting Time" means the schedule of time during which each parent has access to a child at specified times. Each parent during their scheduled parenting time is responsible for providing the child with food, clothing and shelter and may make routine decisions concerning the child's care.

Drafting a Parenting Plan:

The written parenting plan pays attention to how the parents will make decisions pertaining to the child(ren)'s education, health care, religious training, and personal care; it is a blend of specific information with generalized plans of action. It should reflect what the parents are currently doing or what they actually plan to do. It should reflect a commitment to the minor child(ren)'s needs as predominant.

If the parents cannot agree on a plan for legal decision-making or parenting time, each parent must submit a proposed parenting plan. A.R.S. § 25-403.02(A)

In order for the Court to approve a parenting plan, A.R.S. § 25-403.02 requires the Court to make the following findings:

- a. The best interests of the minor child(ren) are served;
- b. The plan designates legal decision-making as joint or sole;
- c. The plan sets forth each parent's rights and responsibilities for the personal care of the minor child(ren) and for decisions in areas such as education, health care, and religious training;
- d. The plan provides a practical schedule of parenting time for the child, including holidays and school vacations;

- e. The plan includes a procedure for exchanges of the child, including location and responsibility for transportation;
- f. The plan includes a procedure by which proposed changes, disputes and alleged breaches may be mediated or resolved, which may include the use of Conciliation Services or private counseling;
- g. The plan includes a procedure for periodic review (e.g., parents agree to review the terms of the agreement every 12 months.);
- h. The plan includes a procedure for communicating with each other about the child, including methods and frequency;
- i. The plan includes a statement that each party has read, understands, and will abide by the notification requirements of A.R.S. § 25-403.05(B). (A parent must immediately notify the other parent if the parent knows that a convicted/registered sex offender or a person who has been convicted of a dangerous crime against children may have access to the child. Notice must be provided (i) by first class mail, return receipt requested, (ii) by electronic means to an e-mail address the recipient provided to the parent for notification purposes, or (iii) by other communication accepted by the Court.)

The following questions may be used as a starting place when drafting a parenting plan:

1. The geographical location of the parents: Where do parents live relative to one another? What are their addresses? Permanent or temporary?
2. Arrangements regarding the residential requirements of the minor child(ren): How much time will the minor child(ren) spend with each parent? Be as specific as possible, including days and times.
3. Arrangements for holidays and vacations: What are your plans for summer vacation and school breaks? List specific details including dates and times.
4. Arrangements for education: How will decisions be made for educational matters? For example, if preschool age, what school will the minor child(ren) attend? If private school, who pays what?
5. Additional transportation arrangements: Will any additional transportation arrangements be needed? If so, what will be the responsibilities of each parent?
6. Determinations regarding minor child(ren)'s health care: For example, how will medical decisions be made? Who will provide insurance? How are non-insured expenses paid? Who decides on seeking non-emergency treatment? Is there a dental plan? If not, who will pay what?
7. Arrangements regarding extraordinary expenses: For example, what financial arrangements are made for the minor child(ren) (such as each sharing extraordinary expenditures and the parent with whom the minor child(ren) resides bearing the ordinary ones during the minor child(ren)'s residency)? A fixed amount per month?
8. Arrangements for minor child(ren)'s religious training, if any: For example, how will decisions be made for religious training? What, if any, are the plans for religious training?
9. Any other factors: What other arrangements (such as music lessons, sports/activity fees, camp or Scouts) are needed?

Step 2: Complete the Child Support Worksheet online via:

AzCourt <https://www.azcourts.gov/familylaw/Which-Child-Support-Calculator-Should-I-Use>

Step 3: Make 2 copies of the originals of the following documents:

- Summons
- Preliminary Injunction

- Parenting Plan
- Child Support Worksheet
- Order and Notice for Parent Information Program

Step 4: Separate your documents into three (3) sets:

| Set 1 - Originals for Clerk of Superior Court: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Family Department/Sensitive Data CoverSheet• Summons• Preliminary Injunction• Petition to Establish• Parenting Plan• Child Support Worksheet• Order and Notice for Parent Information Program | Set 2 - Copies for other party: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Summons• Preliminary Injunction• Petition to Establish• Parenting Plan• Child Support Worksheet• Order and Notice for Parent Information Program |
| Set 3 – Copies for you: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Summons• Preliminary Injunction• Petition to Establish• Parenting Plan• Child Support Worksheet• Order and Notice for Parent Information Program | |

Go to the court to file your papers. The court is open from 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., Monday-Friday. You should go to the court at least two hours before it closes. You may file your court papers at the following Clerk of Superior Court locations:

Clerk of Superior Court
250 West Second Street
Yuma, Arizona 85364

Fees: A list of current fees is available from the Law Library Resource Center and from the Clerk of Superior Court's website.

If you cannot afford the filing fee and/or the fee for having the papers served by the Sheriff or by publication, you may request a deferral (payment plan) when you file your papers with the Clerk of Superior Court. Deferral Applications are available at no charge from the Law Library Resource Center.

If this is a joint-filing by both parties as in a "stipulation" or "agreement," and it is the first time one of the parties or his or her attorney has "appeared," that is, filed papers in this case, a separate substantial "appearance fee" (also known as a "response" or "answer" fee) will be due from that party at the time of filing.

Papers: Hand all three (3) sets of your court papers to the Clerk of Superior Court along with along with the correct filing fee. Make sure you get the following back from the Clerk of Superior Court:

- Your set of copies
- The other party's set of copies

Step 6: Serve the papers on the other party. Read the packet at the Law Library Resource Center called "Service of Court Papers" that applies to your situation. This will explain how to serve the other party. Remember to file your Affidavit or Acceptance of Service as soon as the Respondent is served.

Step 7: Wait. Depending on how and where you served the papers on the other party (in-state, out of state, by publication, etc.), he or she has a certain number of days to file a response to tell the Court that he or she disagrees with your facts, or objects to the Orders you want the Court to make. You should receive a copy of the Response and a notice about when and where you must appear for any Court procedure or hearing.

If no response is filed, you must file papers to tell the court the other party defaulted - that is, the other party agrees with your request - or at least did not file papers to disagree, so the Court should move forward. See the Law Library Resource Center's "Default" packet and follow the timetable and procedures there to apply for your default court order.

THE COURT FINDS AS FOLLOWS:

1. The parties have the following minor child(ren) (hereinafter the “minor child(ren)”):

|-------------|-------------|
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |
| Name: _____ | Born: _____ |

2. An order regarding legal decision-making and/or parenting time in the best interests of the minor child(ren) (also referred to as a “Parenting Plan”) was entered by this Court on (insert date)

3. A.R.S. §25-401 defines two different types of legal decision-making. “Joint legal decision-making” means both parents share decision-making and neither parent's rights or responsibilities are superior except with respect to specified decisions as set forth by the court or the parents in the final judgment or order. “Sole legal decision-making” means one parent has the legal right and responsibility to make major decisions for a child. In this case, the Court has awarded joint legal decision-making to the parents.

4. It furthers the best interests of the minor child(ren) for this Court to enter the following school-specific order that reflects relevant provisions under the Parenting Plan. This order serves to supplement, but not modify or replace, the provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan. If there is a conflict between this order and the current Parenting Plan, the Parenting Plan controls. For purposes of this order, the terms apply equally to schools, pre-schools, and institutional childcare providers.

5. This order is binding upon the parents, who are responsible for complying with its terms and the terms in the parenting plan. It is not binding on a school but is provided as guidance for the child(ren)’s schools.

Based thereon,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Delivery to School.

The parents are required to provide a copy of this order to the minor child(ren)’s school(s).

2. Joint Legal Decision-Making.

The parents have been awarded joint legal decision-making. As it relates to this Education Order, legal decisions include school selection, enrollment/withdrawal, and special services (IEP/504 Plans). In the event the parents cannot agree (select appropriate box):

- ☐ Joint Decision-Making: Neither parent is entitled to any greater decision-making authority. No change can be made, nor any action taken, unless the parties agree or a court order resolves the issue.

☐ Joint Decision-Making with a party having “Final” Authority: Subject to the terms set forth in the Parenting Plan, decisions will be made by (indicate which parent has “presumptive” or “final” authority):

☐ Petitioner

☐ Respondent

3. School Selection.

Enrollment of the minor child(ren) in a particular school is subject to the school’s policies or rules, space availability, enrollment restrictions set by the school or school district or its authorizer (if a charter school), and state law. A parent may submit enrollment documentation to the school of choice solely for the purpose of reserving the minor child(ren)’s place at the school. Neither parent is restricted from selecting their preference of school for open enrollment purposes.

4. Special Services.

If the minor child(ren) is/are eligible for or being considered for a 504 Plan, an Individualized Education Program (IEP), an Individualized Service Plan (ISP), or other special services:

- An evaluation as to the minor child(ren)’s eligibility for special services shall proceed so long as at least one parent consents.
- Both parents are entitled to attend all meetings with school officials that parents are permitted to attend.
- Both parents are authorized to have access to all special services records and testing results.
- Upon completion of any evaluation or assessments, if there is no agreement between the parties regarding the provision of special education and related special services, the decision of how to proceed must be decided in accordance with the legal decision-making orders of the court.

5. Parenting Time and Child Pick-Up.

The school should not use the parenting schedule as a basis to deny either parent access to their minor child(ren), nor may either parent instruct the school to limit contact, unless otherwise ordered. Each parent may pick up the minor child(ren) from school and each may authorize other individuals to pick up the minor child(ren), unless there are limitations under the terms of the current Parenting Plan or another court order.

6. Contact Information.

Each parent’s home address, e-mail, cell phone and any other contact information must be provided to the school and listed by the school as the contact information for the minor child(ren). Additional emergency contacts may be listed, but in the event of a dispute between the parties, the school must list any person requested by either parent until the parents reach an agreement or secure a court order to the contrary. In the event of an emergency, either parent may make decisions for the minor child(ren)’s immediate care.

7. Access to School Grounds.

Subject to the policies of the school, or any provisions set forth in the Parenting Plan or other order of the court, there are no restrictions on either parent’s right to participate in school activities or events, or engage in any parent volunteer activities, that parents are generally permitted to participate in.

8. Access to School Records and Parent Portal.

Both parents are entitled to equal access to the minor child(ren)'s school records. Neither parent may restrict the other parent's access to information. Further, each parent is individually responsible for contacting the school and requesting to be included on any mailing or distribution list.

Both parents are entitled to access the school's student information system or online parent portal(s) (e.g. ParentVUE, Google Classroom, Infinite Campus, etc.). Unless the school allows each parent to have an individual login account, the parents must create a joint login ID and password, which will not be changed or modified without the consent of the other parent.

9. Parent-Teacher Conferences.

Each of the parents has equal right to confer with teachers and counselors concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and other activities. The parents may request joint or separate parent-teacher conferences, and the school may or may not accommodate the request.

10. Curriculum and Instruction Disputes.

In the event there is a disagreement between the parties as to the child(ren)'s involvement in any specific curricular activities, the subject matter being taught by the school (including books associated with the school curriculum), or the method of instruction, the issue shall be decided consistent with the legal decision-making authority assigned by court order. If neither parent has superior decision-making authority, the school shall implement its standard curriculum and method of instruction until such time that the parties reach an agreement or secure a court order.

11. Extra-Curricular Activities.

Each parent is authorized to sign consent forms for the child(ren) to participate in extra-curricular activities. In the event the parents disagree about the child(ren)'s involvement in such activities, the issue shall be addressed in accordance with the legal decision-making authority determined by the court. If neither parent has superior decision-making authority, the burden shall be on the parents, and not the schools, to resolve the issue through agreement or order of the court consistent with the legal decision-making orders entered by the court.

12. Future Litigation.

The parties must make best efforts to agree upon the admission of school records or communications without the need for foundational testimony or agree upon the submission of an affidavit from the custodian of records to authenticate the records in lieu of testimony, whenever possible. If a teacher or school official is required for substantive testimony, the scheduling of such testimony will, when possible, be set at a time that is least disruptive to the school, its other students, and its operations. Presumptively, accommodations will be made to allow virtual appearances by the teacher or school official.
